If You Want to Sell Your House
Don't be afraid to spend $10 advertising it. $10 spent in advertising will bring the customer who wants the house and who will pay what it is worth. $500 is often lost trying to save an ad bill of $10.

HEARST'S
BOSTON AMERICAN
THE TWENTIETH CENTURY NEWSPAPER

WEATHER FORECAST. Fair; Light Winds.

NIGHT EDITION

VOL. 3—No. 127. 10 PAGES. BOSTON, FRIDAY, JULY 27, 1906. Copyright, 1906, by the New England Newspaper Publishing Company. 10 PAGES. PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW BEDFORD STRIKERS APPEAL TO UNION MEN FOR AID

"I want to appeal through the BOSTON AMERICAN for financial support from organized labor for our union in this strike.

"We know we have the moral support of all union men, and, for that matter, of the majority of the people of New Bedford.

"But it is money that we need now. All contributions should be sent to George E. Lane, treasurer of Street Car Union of New Bedford.—President William E. Cleary's appeal for union aid in trolley strike.

TROLLEY MEN WILL FIGHT TO FINISH

NEW BEDFORD CAR SMASHED IN RIOT

In spite of repeated urging by strike leaders to avoid violence, crowds of sympathizers have attacked cars with stones and other missiles. This one was photographed after an exciting run.

PRESIDENT OF UNION SAYS:

'WE'LL WIN'

"Confidence of Men Gaining," Says Cleary, "and All Are Resolved to Stand Firm." Expects Success Through Fair Means, and Deplores Violence.

Special to the Boston American.

NEW BEDFORD, July 27.—"We will fight to a finish," was the watchword of this morning's meeting of the striking motormen and conductors of the Union Street Railway Company.

The confidence of the men grows hourly. They say they will win, and laugh at the idea of desertions from their ranks.

An emphatic summary of the strikers' feelings to-day was given out this noon by President William E. Cleary of the new union, who said, after the meeting:

"We are more confident than ever. We ought to win and we expect to. We have justice on our side in this contest. There has been no weakening, and I am sure there will be none."

DEPLORES VIOLENCE.

"But we expect to win by fair means. We deplore in the strongest terms any violence that has been committed. There has been a report that State troops were to be sent here. There is no need of any troops, or any policemen either so far as the strikers go.

"I wish to make through the BOSTON AMERICAN, appeal to organized labor for funds to help the union win its fight. We know we have the moral support of all unions and, for that matter, of the major ity of the people of New Bedford.

"But it is money that we need now. Our union is new and we have no treasury to speak of, even though we have plenty of determination and courage."

HAVE PUBLIC SYMPATHY.

The strikers have public sympathy on their side. People walk rather than ride in the few cars the company is able to operate by the aid of strike-breakers. The "We walk" badge is the popular decoration.

Despite the unfavorable prospect of any sort of a compromise, Mayor Thompson sent to the Mansion House to-day to see the State Board of Arbitration in regard to arranging another conference.

The Mayor has sworn in eleven special policemen to supplement the force of ninety regulars and forty reserves. He says he will swear in citizens of all classes, workingmen, professional men and others if necessary to maintain order.

UNION MEN JUBILANT.

The union men are jubilant over the company's being obliged to return to New York the fifty "Parley" strike-breakers who came here yesterday via Fall River. There are 107 strike-breakers left in the city now. Those sent back were too "hard" even for strike-breakers. They were smuggled into Lincoln Park, the company's pleasure ground, and turned on the Fall River boat. This park is closed during the strike and the company is losing money through failure to collect big daily receipts there.

The statement in Boston morning papers that Governor Curtis Guild, Jr., had instructed Colonel J. P. Nutter, in command of the First Brigade, at Fort Rodman, to hold his militia in readiness for duty in New Bedford, was flatly denied by the Governor himself to-day. He said: "The statement is absolutely false."

The "workingmen's car service" was begun at 5:30 o'clock this morning, in order to provide the mill operatives with transportation to their work, but none of the operatives would ride upon them, and they traversed the streets with hardly a passenger. The regular service was started at 7:15. Up to that time there had been no disturbances at the car barns or on the streets.

START BELT LINE TO-DAY.

The Belt Line service, which has not been running since the strike began, was inaugurated to-day by the company, with the aid of its strikebreakers. These cars were not guarded by policemen, only the Purchase street line being thus protected.

The company says that to-day it is making half-hour time on the Dartmouth and Westport line which runs to Fall River. Its best efforts are being devoted to Purchase street, however. That is the main thoroughfare, and the company hopes to make an impression on the public by keeping cars moving where the most people are.

The 107 strikebreakers now remaining here are all quartered in the Weld street car barn. They seem quite comfortable, judging by their appearance when off duty, and chattered about the car barn doors.

GUARDS AROUSE CITIZENS.

To-day the situation grows more serious as the citizens are becoming more aroused over the presence of the imported armed

Continued on Page 2, Column 3.

DONOVAN TO TELL OF WORK IN FENWAY PROBE

MORAN BEFORE GRAND JURY RESUMES INVESTIGATION OF ALLEGED GRAFT.

The Grand Jury, under the direction of District Attorney John B. Moran, today went on with its investigation of the Fenway scandal, City Inspector Daniel Curtin being the first witness. While he was testifying Simon J. Donovan, one of the four contractors who had charge of the Fenway work, was in Mr. Moran's office waiting to be called.

The District Attorney is presumably conducting the investigation of this case, involving alleged waste of a half a million of the city's funds.

Besides Mr. Donovan, John B. Graham, brother-in-law of Joseph J. Corbett, and Henry H. Carter, ex-superintendent of streets, who is now connected with the Metropolitan Construction Company, have been summoned by the Grand Jury. These three men with Henry Swan, Democratic leader in Ward 20, held the four individual contracts for the construction of the Fenway Improvement. Swan has not been summoned. Inspector Curtin was the city inspector in charge of Division 1 the contract for the contract for the construction of which was held in Newton.

It is probable that Mr. Donovan may begin his testimony late to-day. All of the records telling of money expended by the city for Fenway work have been placed in the Grand Jury room. Inspector Curtin's work to-day is to explain these books to Grand Jury.

Begin New Graft Probe.

The District Attorney's office simultaneously with the investigation of the Fenway graft is investigating the charge that the Newton High School building on Huntington avenue is being faultily constructed. It relates chiefly of the Schools Committee, which let the contract for the work, consulted with District Attorney Moran today. Inspectors have personally inspected the work at the building and reported their findings to Mr. Moran, and it is expected that the District Attorney will place all the evidence he has collected on the Newton High School case to the grand jury even time to-day.

Donovan, who was compelled to deliver the records and books in his work on the sewer yesterday, must also tell the Grand Jury all that he knows about the work done and what it really cost.

Must Explain Entries.

He must explain to the Grand Jury the entries in his books and the wages paid, the prices of materials used and the pay rolls.

The Fenway graft inquiry has been in progress but two days, after months of preparation by the District Attorney, in an investigation of alleged scandals and the waste of a half million of dollars of the city's money.

Simon J. Donovan was in the court house yesterday with his clerk, Alexander McGuinness. He met for some time in the office of Assistant District Attorney Dennison, expecting to be called before the Grand Jury, but that body was not ready to hear him at that time and he was directed to appear to-day.

Sea Gives Up Clara Braley's Body; Probe GIRL'S DEATH PUZZLE

Belfast, Me., Police Seek Young Man Who Has Disappeared.

Special to the Boston American.

BELFAST, Me., July 27.—Investigation into the death of pretty Clara Braley, whose body was found yesterday in the harbor off Northport, reveals one of the most mysterious cases that the State has ever known.

A jury was summoned to-day and an inquest began, which was adjourned until 10:30 next Monday morning.

Search is being made for a young man who disappeared a few hours after the body of Miss Braley was taken from the water.

Seen Alive Sunday.

The dead girl was last seen alive last Sunday night, when she left the home of her uncle in East Belfast after bidding him good-night. She stepped to the doorway for a moment before going to her room.

Her body was found seven miles from John Robinson's house.

So peculiar are the circumstances surrounding the girl's disappearance that the authorities have found it necessary to question a large number of people who might be able to throw some light on the girl's death. So far they have found but few clues.

John Robinson made search for his niece when he found an hour after she stepped to her room that she had not returned. His all-night search failed to reveal the slightest trace of her.

From tracks found Monday morning, however, it is thought that clues walked to the shore, about half a mile from her home. Near the shore was the United States trailing ship Chase, with hundreds of sailors and marines aboard. Many of these men have been questioned, but none admit having seen the girl.

Signs of Foul Play.

When Clara Braley left her uncle's house she had on no hat, no outer wraps of any kind and wore a gray-blue skirt, a white waist and black stockings with low shoes.

When the girl's body was found the outer clothing had disappeared and the shoes were gone. Whether these had been removed or had come loose in the water it is impossible to say.

STEAM PIPE EXPLODES ON ILLINOIS; 2 HURT

NARROW ESCAPE FROM COLLISION IN NORTH ATLANTIC FLEET MANOEUVRES.

Special to the Boston American.

ROCKPORT, July 27.—The first serious accident which has occurred since the battleships of the North Atlantic fleet arrived here for their maneuvres was reported early to-day. While two miles off shore, yesterday afternoon, a 4-inch steam pipe on the Illinois broke, scalding two men and flooding the starboard engine room with water. The names of the men injured were not obtainable. They are sent to the wardroom of the battleship for treatment.

It was also reported to-day that only by the smallest margin did the battleship Indiana avoid colliding with the Alabama, after coming in from the maneuvres yesterday afternoon. They ship into the harbor in a column, about 250 feet apart. The Alabama preceded the Indiana. When the order was given to drop anchors, the anchor on the Indiana was dropped, but Captain Taussig on the Alabama failed to reverse his engines.

The ship was travelling about six knots at the time, and dragged her anchor and about 150 fathoms of chain. The Alabama had come to a full stop and a collision was averted by but a small distance.

Owing to the heavy rains which fell all night the seventeen mile march over the cape of 2,500 marines from the battleships has been postponed until tomorrow.

Six hundred marines came ashore to-day for a drill on the Headlands, south of Rockport. They are to return to their ships later in the day. The march to-morrow will include the towns of Pigeon Cove, Lanesville, Annisquam, Gloucester and then back to Rockport.

THE WEATHER.

Partly cloudy to-night and Saturday; probably warmer. Light variable winds.

Sun rises—4:31, sets 7:10.
High tide—3:12 a. m, 3:46 p. m.
Moon sets—10:46 p. m.

NEW CONSULS ARE NAMED BY PRESIDENT

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., July 27.—The following appointments were announced by President Roosevelt to-day:

To be Japanese secretary and interpreter at the embassy to Japan, Ransford Stevens Miller, Jr., of New York; Consuls—Will R. Lowrie of Illinois, Weimar, Germany; George B. Wardman of Pennsylvania, Aguascallentes, Mexico; Thomas H. Norton, Ohio, Chemnitz, Saxony; Ernest T. Harris, Illinois, Smyrna, Turkey.

PUT ICE PRICES UP 50 PER CENT

NEW HAVEN, Ct., July 27.—It was officially announced to-day by Charles F. Curtiss, president of the Hygienic Ice Company, the companies, the local trust, that an immediate increase of 50 per cent. in prices to wholesalers and storekeepers will go into effect at once. The increase is from thirty cents a hundred to forty-five. An increase in the family rate from sixty cents to seventy-five is expected to follow.

Mr. Curtiss says that the increase in price was decided upon to restrict, if possible, the sale of ice here in an effort to avert famine that seems inevitable. He says that the companies he represents, which practically control the entire field here, have a very little ice on hand now and are unable to get more. He fears that it will be impossible to prevent a famine even by increasing the price.

REPORT IN ON BIG COLLAPSE

SOUTH FRAMINGHAM, July 27.—The report of Medical Examiner Lewis M. Pease on the deaths of the twelve persons killed in the collapse of the Amsden build ing here has been completed, and copies were to-day sent to Judge Willis A. Kingsley of the First District Court and to District Attorney George A. Sanderson of Middlesex County, who will have charge of the inquest.

The remaining debris of the wrecked building is being quickly carted away. Encouraging reports were issued from the hospital to-day on the condition of those who were injured, only four now remaining.

MAY GO TO AUSTRALIA.

Alack McLean, who is now the manager of Jack Johnson, is figuring on taking his big colored heavyweight to Australia this fall. Johnson is going to the Pacific coast shortly and McLean will join him there after the bicycle season ends here.

INDEPENDENCE LEAGUE GETS LABOR SUPPORT

The Heads of Many Unions Through the State Come Out for Hearst.

CONDEMN TRUSTS' GREED

By Boston American Leased Wire.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., July 27.—Union labor leaders here are unanimous in indorsing the sentiments expressed in labor's appeal to labor to support Independence League candidates. All of the most prominent union men have espoused the new political party and are active for it.

T. J. Nolan, president of the Central Trades and Labor Council, says:

"I heartily subscribe to the appeal, which should be a clarion call to workingmen throughout the State to get in line and assert their rights. I have long advocated united action by labor at the polls, but not until now has the right opportunity been afforded for this.

"Mr. Hearst is the foremost champion of labor in America. He and his press as newspapers have done considerable for the cause of labor, but it is impossible to get a fair and square deal under existing conditions. The Independence League means much to the workingman."

Buffalo Strong for His Candidacy.

BUFFALO, July 26.—James Holloway, business agent of the Stationary Firemen's Union, says:

"Members of our union are familiar with the appeal of the labor leaders for the Independence League, and the appeal has struck a responsive chord in almost all. I am an Independent voter, and I am going to vote for the Independence League ticket and for William R. Hearst for Governor."

Robert Maines of the Longshoremen's Union and Licensed Pilots' Association said:

"The Independence League and its ticket should appeal to every working man. I think that the laboring classes will receive a fairer representation with Mr. Hearst and his ticket in office than they have yet had. He has the support of all the labor ing men I know, and has merited it by his fearlessness in doing the right thing."

"Brought Prosperity to Printers.

BINGHAMTON, July 26.—John F. Freeman, president of the Binghamton Typographical Union and Allied Printing Trades Council said to-night:

"W. R. Hearst has done more for the printers of this country than any other person in the United States. He has set the pace for New York newspapers, and by increasing their size and importance has brought prosperity to every branch of the printing trade. He has established newspapers at the request of typographical unions in cities where we have been fought tooth and nail, and has helped us to win out, notably in Los Angeles. He has always paid more than the union scale. Printers throughout this State should vote solidly for him."

Thomas F. Sweeney, president Binghamton Central Labor Union, said:

"The sentiment for W. R. Hearst among members of the Central Labor Union is almost unanimous. We have received a communication from Samuel Gompers in which he advises union men to support political candidates who favor union interests, and this was received enthusiastically at Wednesday night's meeting. Mr. Hearst's policies have been in favor of the union men, and there is no question but they should and will receive the support of workingmen here, both union and non-union."

BRYAN HAS 'SOCIAL CHAT' WITH KING

Greatly Pleased With His Reception by Edward VII. and Finds Him "Agreeable."

20 MINUTES' PRIVATE TALK

Special Cable to Boston American.

Copyright, 1906, by American Journal Examiner.

LONDON, July 26.—William J. Bryan's visit to England reached its social and official culmination to-day when he was received in private audience by King Edward at Buckingham Palace. Mr. Bryan was accompanied by Whitelaw Reid, the American Ambassador.

The King's private chat with Mr. Bryan is said to have been most cordial.

Subsequently the King received some eighty members of the Interparliamentary Union in the Throne Room. Congressman Richard Bartholdt of Missouri, T. E. Burton of Ohio, and Rockwood Hoar of Massachusetts, representing the American group. Mr. Bryan accompanied the three Congressmen at this function, which was somewhat in the nature of a levee.

King Stands on Dais.

The King stood on a dais in front of the throne. He nodded and smiled as the members of the council passed before him, their names being announced by an usher.

Ambassador Reid, who was present in the palace while the visitors were in the throne gallery, went to Mr. Bryan with one of the King's courtiers and notified the Nebraskan that His Majesty desired to meet him privately after he entered the throne room to receive the other members of the council.

Mr. Bryan was escorted by Mr. Reid and the courtier and entered the small audience room. Mr. Reid presented the Nebraskan to the King, who shook hands warmly. The King and Mr. Bryan chatted for twenty minutes. Then the King enjoined the long line of forty-seated peers on the dais. Mr. Bryan followed and joined the long line of forty-seated peacemakers who were waiting to be presented to His Majesty. The presentation consisted merely of the announcement of the gentleman's name by an usher.

The AMERICAN reporter asked Mr. Bryan concerning his impressions of the interview with the King. Mr. Bryan declined to discuss the audience, saying it was discourteous. Being pressed, Mr. Bryan said:

Visit Purely Social.

"My visit to King Edward was purely social. I chatted some twenty minutes with His Majesty. This was my first meeting with him. When I was in London three years ago the King was absent from the city, and I did not call.

"I must say His Majesty was extremely agreeable. We discussed a number of subjects, but the principal questions we talked about were subjects that I had discussed during the interparliamentary conference. His Majesty expressed the warmest sympathy with the objects and purposes of the conference, which are, of course, peace."

When the correspondent asked Mr. Bryan if the object of the next general election in the United States of America had been touched upon Mr. Bryan smilingly said "that's an unfair question to ask."

After Mr. Bryan and Reid returned to the gilted Cecil late tonight Mr. Bryan told a friend he was very pleased to have opportunity to meet the King, and that it was a surprise he had not called on Mr. Bryan informed his friend he was pleased and surprised to discover His Majesty so well informed concerning the world wide subject, not about American affairs. Mr. Bryan declined to repeat any of the topics discussed by the King had said, either about the peace conference or about American affairs.

Heiress Is Now Among Lepers to Wed Doctor

MISS NELLIE WHITE. Williams, Photo.

Miss Nellie White, heiress and niece of ex-Governor John D. Long, Who Has Gone to Hawaii, Where She Will Wed Physician in Charge of U. S. Leprosarium.

MISS NELLIE WHITE, WHO WILL WED AMONG LEPERS.

Miss Nellie White, Fiancee of W. R. Brinckerhoff, Arrives in Hawaiian Islands.

WINCHENDON, July 27. In response to the call of her fiance, Miss Nellie White, niece of ex-Governor John D. Long and heiress to the multi millionaire, Nelson B. White, has arrived at the end of her 6,000-mile journey which took her to the Hawaiian Islands, where her future husband, Dr. Walter R. Brinckerhoff, has charge of the United States Leprosarium at Molokai. The couple will be married late in August and 1902.

The White family is well pleased with the match.

Miss White is heart and soul with the work Dr. Brinckerhoff is taking up and will devote herself to his assistance in spite of the dangers of contagion. They say that Dr. Brinckerhoff's profession of immunity death will be insignificant in comparison.

Dr. Brinckerhoff won fame in Boston during the smallpox scare in Boston during the match.

THOUSANDS WALK TO AID CAR STRIKERS

Continued from First Page.

strikebreakers who have repeatedly announced that they are looking for trouble and are prepared to meet it.

There was much disorder in the streets in the vicinity of the car barns last evening, and several passengers, a police officer and some of the employes were hurt by missiles thrown at the cars. Windows of four cars were smashed.

Among the injured were George J. Park, car barn foreman; City Auditor, and Neil Cronin. They were hit by bricks. Parker was later arrested for drunkenness.

Three disturbances forced the company to abandon its service shortly after 10 o'clock last evening. The first police disorder occurred on Fourth street just after the dispersion of the strikers' parade.

PLEADS FOR COMPROMISE.

President Richard P. Barry of the State Board of Arbitration, in an interview with a BOSTON AMERICAN reporter, said to-day:

"I am sorry to hear of the result of the vote of the strikers' meeting. I don't like to see these troubles hang on when a little compromising would end the matter.

Mayor Thomas Plowman, the "Marble Cutter Mayor," declared to-day that President Crapo was very fair and treated the men with every consideration at all conferences in his office yesterday.

"If the car men had been willing to sacrifice to the extent of laying five of their men receive a lower rating, the whole thing could have been fixed up then and there. I asked the car men how many of the officers would be affected by reduced by other men under the new proposition and they agreed that there were only five. Then I asked them if they would not settle the matter by drawing lots for the poorer places and they refused to do so."

A novel feature in the strike situation becomes known to-day when it is announced that President W. A. Clean of the Car Men's Union, which is on strike, may be called upon to do police duty in preventing the cars from being run. He is a special policeman and subject to the call of the Mayor. The wisdom of imposing fines upon members of labor unions who patronize the street cars during the strike has had an immediate effect upon the number of passengers carried.

MEN REFUSE NEW PLAN OF COMPANY

NEW BEDFORD, July 27. President Crapo of the Union Street Railway Company, in a formal statement issued after the conference with the State Board of Arbitration and the strikers, offered to permit the car men to return to work in their old places and ranks, provided they return before 4:30 o'clock to-day. The men unanimously refused to accept the terms.

Given Until Late Afternoon.

Following is the proposition of President Crapo:

"The Board of Conciliation and Arbitration, from investigation made by the Board, having reported to me that the order of July 24, giving notice to all men who failed to report on or before 9:30 a. m. July 25, were thereby discharged, owing to the short time and excitement of many of the men affected was not definitely understood as an absolute and final discharge, and having suggested that in fairness to the men who may be under the misapprehension of the situation, the time set in said notice during which if they returned they would hold their positions be extended in order to give them an opportunity if they desired to take advantage of it, I hereby state that the application of the order is extended to 4:30 p. m. to-morrow, July 27, and all men who were in our employ on Monday last will be reinstated if they apply before that date, forfeiting their rights to the years of service, but taking rank below all men who have remained at work and have maintained their good standing since Monday last.

Would Rank as Before.

"The ranking of all such men as apply before 4:30 to-morrow will be as among themselves, the same as they formerly held and not in the order of time of reporting.

"The terms of employment which will apply to these men will be the same as those which apply to all men at present in our employ, a statement of which as to certain aspects I have submitted to the Board of Conciliation and Arbitration as a definite statement of the terms and conditions as to the points covered of the present position of the company in relation to the same. They will remain in the same position of the company for the present, and so far as I can foresee for the immediate future, but are not put forth for the permanent conditions which may not be affected by varying future conditions, and are not limited to any time.

"Any man who is now in good standing or returns to work under this extension of time and does not completely join in absolute harmony with the employees and treat them with full respect, courtesy and consideration, core and for all ceasing by his action or words to foster or encourage the strike and discord of the late situation, will be regarded as inimical to the interests of the company and subject to discharge."

"SPIRIT HOME" TO BE A SANITARIUM

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., July 27. "The Spirit Mansion," at No. 10 Benton avenue this city, where Luther H. Marsh spent the last days of his life, and where Mrs. Marsh, Mrs. Clarissa J. Hoyler, was said to have been in communication with spirits, has been sold to Dr. B. B. Kinna. He will establish a sanitarium there.

ROCKEFELLER MOODY AS BOAT NEARS SHORE

John D. Evades Arrest Warrant and Will Appear Voluntarily.

By William Hoster.

Special Commissioner of the BOSTON AMERICAN with John D. Rockefeller.

Copyright, 1906, by American Journal Examiner.

ON BOARD S. S. AMERIKA, by Marconi Wireless via Halifax, July 27.—It is understood among the passengers aboard the ship that Mr. Rockefeller has arranged through his attorneys in New York and Ohio to appear at Findlay, O., whenever his attendance is desired by the court. By this arrangement Mr. Rockefeller has obviated the annoyance of warrants and the unwelcome greeting at the pier by a committee of city officials.

Mr. Rockefeller is eager to get home, and as the ship nears the port of New York he becomes restless and uncomfortable. He is fast losing his simple, friendly ways, and does not mingle with his fellow passengers and take part in their sport as he did on the way out.

Here, on board the ship, he is nervous, and always is alone, except for the attendance of Dr. Biggar on his valet.

Mr. Rockefeller tells me that he has enjoyed his trip very much. He says that at Compiegne he has had the most complete rest of his life. He was entirely free from annoyance and lived the life of a quiet, simple ordinary men.

A picture in the ships paper illustrating Mr. Rockefeller's great wealth has annoyed him exceedingly.

TRY NEWTON ICE DRIVER ON FRAUD CHARGE

Decision Reserved in Case of John Robb, Accused of Giving Short Weight.

The first of the Newton cases against ice companies which have been complained of as giving short weight was heard in the Newton court to-day, when John C. Robb, driver for the Crystal Ice Company, was arraigned on complaints of John L. Farmer of Newtonville.

Farmer charged that Driver Robb sold him 88 pounds of ice when 100 pounds was ordered, and that he paid 35 cents for the ice, the full price for 100 pounds. The case is regarded as a test case for the numerous complaints of short weight that have been made. Judge Kennedy withheld his decision.

Attorney Proctor, counsel for Robb, argued that the complaint and warrant should be set aside, as no criminal intent had been shown. The cited common law, going back to the time of George III., in an effort to prove that criminal intent must be shown.

Other cases, similar to that of Robb and after which two companies will come up August 8.

ROCKEFELLER MUST FACE JURY TRIAL ON SEPTEMBER 4

FINDLAY, O., July 27.—John D. Rockefeller must stand trial in this city before the court of Hancock county September 4 and face trial by jury. His attorney, James O. Troop of Bowling Green, who appeared before Judge Ritchey a few days ago and secured permission to enter his appearance, again appeared late yesterday and filed a bond for $1,000. It is the intention of County Prosecuting Attorney David to impanel a jury for September 4 and proceed at once to the trial.

The attorneys for the Standard Oil Company have filed a motion to quash the information filed by David.

2 BOYS DROWN IN VIEW OF PARENTS

SYRACUSE, N. Y., July 27.—Meal King and Charles Dibble, aged 12 years each, boys, were drowned in Duck Lake yesterday while swimming. The parents of both boys were on shore and saw them sink. The youths got beyond their depth and became frightened.

IMPORTANT NEWS

Revised Hourly for Busy Readers.

WASHINGTON.

FIRST SMALLPOX DEATH AT COLON.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—The first death from smallpox at Colon was reported yesterday by Governor Magoon, who also reported that there were no new cases.

PORTO RICO TO HAVE REVENUE STATION.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—Porto Rico will soon be made a part of the New York city internal revenue collection district, with a deputy collector in charge, who will have an office on the island for the sale of revenue stamps.

WANTS HIGH SAKE DUTY.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—Secretary Shaw has given instructions to carry into effect the law placing the Japanese drink, classified as sake and well known in a duty of five cents per gallon, certified up to the Circuit Court.

WILL EXAMINE SITES.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—Bids for a site for the public building to be erected at New Britain, Ct., opened yesterday, ranged from $16,000 to $35,000, and a Treasury agent will visit that city to examine the sites.

GENERAL.

DIRECTOR FINED FOR BLOW.

FRANKLIN, July 27.—Francis W. Sherman of Foxboro, president of the American Pin Company, was fined five dollars in the District Court yesterday for striking Medical Examiner Francis A. Bragg during an argument at a meeting of the directors of the company.

TO RAZE FRISCO CITY HALL.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 27. The Board of Public Works has formally condemned this city's $3,000,000 city hall, part of which was left standing by the earthquake.

SAME TAX RATE IN MALDEN.

MALDEN, July 27. The assessors have completed their returns and it is said that the tax rate will be $17.20 on $1,000, the same as last year.

NO IMMIGRANTS SUNDAYS.

No foreigners will be allowed to land at this port on Sundays and holidays after August 1, which will give Commissioner of Immigration Billings and his staff their Sabbath rest. American citizens arriving here are exempt from the ruling.

RELIEF BOARD RESIGNS.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 27. Dr. Edward T. Devine, Colonel George H. Pippy and Edward C. Moore, comprising the Relief Commission which has had the relief work in charge here, have resigned, to take effect August 1.

PROMINENT PERSONS.

CRANES BACK FROM TRIP.

PITTSFIELD, July 27. Senator and Mrs. Crane arrived home from their European trip last night. They will leave for a ten weeks' tour of Europe about the first of August.

CANNON GUEST OF J. W. GATES.

NEW LONDON, Ct., July 27. Speaker Cannon is the guest of John W. Gates at Ocean Beach. Both yesterday went on both auto and yacht jaunts.

G. A. R. HEAD HERE.

Commander-in-Chief James Tanner of the Grand Army of the Republic arrived in Boston yesterday and leaves to-night for Portland. He is now up in preparation for the National encampment to be held in Minneapolis, beginning August 20.

TOOK SON TO SEE PETERHOFF.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 27.—Ambassador von L. Meyer took his young son to see the sights of Peterhoff yesterday.

CALL DIRECTORS WRECKERS.

TRENTON, N. J., July 27. Four of the directors of the North American Copper Company being charged with wrecking the corporation, Vice Chancellor Bergen yesterday granted a rule to show cause in the chancery court how the directors should not be enjoined from their functions.

FOREIGN.

ASSASSINS SHOOT SOLDIERS AND ESCAPE.

DUBLIN, Ireland, July 27.—Two rural guardsmen were shot and killed in a crowded street here yesterday, the assassins making their escape.

TO SCALE NAVAL COST $12,500,000.

LONDON, July 27. The House of Commons to-day began discussion of the Government proposition to reduce the naval program by laying down only three battleships of the Dreadnought class, instead of four; two second-going torpedo boat destroyers instead of five, and eight submarines instead of twelve. This reduction will result in a saving of $12,500,000.

FINANCIAL.

NO RAISE IN FIRE RATES.

Action taken at the meeting of the Boston Board of Fire Underwriters yesterday notified it that there would be no raise in rates for fire insurance for the present.

TRUST COMPANY MERGED.

The Washington Trust Company is to be liquidated by the Beacon Trust Company, which will move into the former's new quarters to-morrow. The stockholders, it is said, will receive $185 a share.

TO HARMONIZE RIVALS.

NEW YORK, July 27.—Mutual friends of Stuyvesant Fish, president of the Illinois Central, and E. H. Harriman, president of the Union Pacific, are making strenuous efforts to harmonize the strained relations between the two.

ARMY AND NAVY.

INSPECT MAGAZINE SITES.

A special ordnance board of the navy inspected the proposed sites for the big naval magazines in Hingham and Weymouth yesterday and will complete the examination to-day.

GUNNERS MAKE 11 DAY TRIP.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 27. The 14th and 21st batteries of field artillery arrived at Fort Benjamin Harrison yesterday, after an eleven days' journey through Illinois and Indiana.

CAVALRY HIKES 250 MILES.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., July 27. The Fifteenth United States cavalry finished its 250-mile march from Fort Rhun Alden yesterday and left here by three special trains for Mt. Gretna, Pa.

SIGNS WARSHIP CONTRACTS.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—Contracts were signed yesterday for building the battleships Michigan and South Carolina, the first by the New York Shipbuilding Company of Camden, N. J., and the second by the Cramps at Philadelphia.

INDUSTRIAL.

PHILIPPINE RAILWAY HEAD.

NEW YORK, July 27.—At a meeting of the directors of the Philippine Railway Company yesterday William Mahonney was elected chairman.

ELECT HUB MEN TO OFFICE.

CINCINNATI, O., July 27.—R. H. Jones of Boston was elected third vice president and L. Eldridge of Boston a member of the executive committee at the convention yesterday of the National League of Local Building and Loan Associations.

MARINE.

HUB SCHOONER LOSES KEEL.

PARRSBORO, N. S., July 27.—The three-masted Boston schooner Silver Leaf put in here for repairs yesterday, after losing her shoe and keel y going aground at Cape Fourche in a fog.

WRECKED STEAMER SOLD.

LOUISBURG, C. B., July 27.—All efforts to float her having proved fruitless, the Rhine Dampfer steamer Angela, ashore near here, has been sold for $7,500.

THE WAR ON GRAFT.

ICE GOES UP IN NEW HAVEN.

NEW HAVEN, Ct., July 27. Beginning next week the wholesale price of ice here will be advanced from 30 cents a hundred to 45 cents, and a retail advance is looked for from 60 cents a ton dled to 75.

MEAT RULES IN FORCE AUG. 1.

WASHINGTON, July 27. The new meat inspection law promulgated by Secretary Wilson and Chief Melvin of the Bureau of Animal Industry, will be enforced in New England beginning August 1.

SUGAR TRUST BACKS DOWN.

NEW YORK, July 27. United before the Federal court for failure to produce certain books asked for by the federal grand jury, the general auditor of the American Sugar Refining Company yesterday complied with the subpoena and prepared with the books.

LABOR.

100 MILL WORKERS STRIKE.

AUGUSTA, Me., July 27. One hundred employees of the Edwards Manufacturing Company struck yesterday because one of their number, who was secretary of the local union of the Lewiston Spinners' Union, was discharged.

NO NAVY YARD PIECE SYSTEM.

WASHINGTON, July 27. Because of a protest by the workmen of the Boston navy yard, the proposed premium or piece work system will not be put into effect in the gun factory.

POLITICAL.

CHURCHILL AT LITTLETON.

LITTLETON, N. H., July 27. A rally is to be held here to-night in the interests of the candidacy of Winston Churchill for Governor, under the auspices of the Lincoln Republican club. Mr. Churchill will make his only speech of the week here.

A Coachman's Collar.

LITHOLIN" Waterproofed Linen.

You can drive in a driving rain and not wet it. You can drive under a burning sun and the perspiration won't affect it. Made to be washed for a year.

At collar shops, or of us. Collars, 25 cents. Cuffs, 50 cents.

The Fiberloid Co. MANUFACTURED LITHOLIN TRADE MARK New York

Telephone 52 and 53 East Boston.

The ANTHRACITE AND BITUMINOUS COAL

Delivered Any Part of the City

STAPLES COAL COMPANY

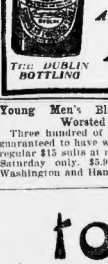
(Successors to John Morrison Co.)

Sumner St., EAST BOSTON

A Word of Advice to All

If you buy a suit or pants before seeing the wonderful trades offered as F. Gray Co.'s mid-summer sale you are not wise. Cor. Washington and Hanover sts.

BURKE'S



Dublin Bottled Guinness STOUT

THE DUBLIN BOTTLING

A Delicious Beverage—Wholesome and Easily Digested.

An Absolutely Pure Malt and Hop Product.

'SALADA' CEYLON AND INDIA TEA.

Mothers—W. V. Hyde Says

Of all the sales I ever saw for children the F. Gray Co.'s windowful of $4 suits for $1.80 is the greatest yet. Cor. Washington and Hanover sts.

Young Men's Black Unfinished Worsted Suits

Three hundred of them, 50 of them guaranteed all wool, regular for $10, regular $15 suits at retail. Friday and Saturday only. $5.80. F. Gray Co., Washington and Hanover sts.

Big Men—Little Men—Tall Men—Short Men

Don't wear yourself out hunting for your size. Come to the F. Gray Co. and be fitted without bother. We fit the hard-to-fit. Cor. Washington and Hanover.

L. SPEIDEL & CO. Main 378

51 Sleeper Street, South Boston

Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer

WHEN ORDERING ASK FOR PABST

Another Free Ticket to Wonderland

In Next Sunday's American

BROTHER SCORES EVELYN NESBIT THAW FOR "HEARTLESS THINGS SAID ABOUT MOTHER"

"NO BETTER, DEARER WOMAN IN THE WORLD"

Howard Nesbit Rebukes Sister for Some of Her Recent Statements.

FAMILY HISTORY IN REVIEW

By Boston American Leased Wire.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 27.—"The heartless things which my sister Florence has to saying about our dear, self-sacrificing mother are more than I can bear in silence any longer. In her heart my sister knows that in all this world there cannot be found a better, dearer woman."

Howard Nesbit, the brother of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, made the foregoing statement to-day.

"The youth he is scarcely more than a boy—then continued:

"We all feel keenly the disgrace brought upon Florence, or Evelyn, as she is called in New York by this lying lure of her past career. But I can forgive everything except that she has declared she has never known the meaning of the word mother.

"Our mother has done for us every thing that any mother could have done. She worked early and late in order to make us happy and give us a good education. Our father also treated us very kindly. His death was a terrible blow to us.

"Not a Word of Reproach."

"But mother stood it courageously. She sent us to school, clad us properly and did all in her power to bring up Florence to a point where she might be proud of the girl, she had grown so exceptionally handsome and was so talented.

"The maternal love of our mother has displayed itself most unmistakably in this, that no matter what Florence has been saying, our mother has not spoken a single word of reproach.

"But I can't remain silent. I know my mother as one of the best of women, who has always done much for Florence and me; and now Florence can now forget herself toward us in excess my comprehension.

"I am perfectly well aware of the attitude which my mother took in regard to the relations between Florence and Mr. White and when the time comes I shall not fail to take the stand on behalf of Mamma.

"It is a lie that my mother placed Florence on the stage. My sister was always stage-struck and, despite every effort of mother to the contrary, Florence would not allow herself to be deterred from her determination to become an actress.

"I remember distinctly that Florence threatened that if Mama did not allow her to go on the stage she would run away from home.

"When Florence finally did come to New York, either mother or I always accompanied her to the theatre.

"Later when they were in London, Florence became arrogant and declared roundly that she no longer wanted mama in her home. A maid would be of more use to her than her," were her words.

"Florence ran away while mother lay sick in bed."

Young Nesbit denied positively that his mother had introduced his sister to White. He said Edna Goodrich, the actress, had done it. Whether his mother would be a witness at the trial of Thaw, the young man said, he was not able to say.

THAW AGREES TO EMOTIONAL INSANITY PLEA

By Boston American Leased Wire.

NEW YORK, July 27.—At a conference participated in by Harry Kendall Thaw, his mother, his wife, his sister and Josiah Thaw, his stepbrother, Thaw practically agreed that emotional or temporary insanity should enter into his defence for the killing of Stanford White. Young Thaw declared he received concessions, but he has surrendered on the main point.

An attorney associated with the defence, who is in full possession of all the facts, yesterday outlined the defence of Harry K. Thaw in these words:

"Thaw will cling to his plea of not guilty. His attorneys will enter a defence of emotional or temporary insanity. Thaw will take the stand and tell his story. If necessary, his wife, Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, will be called by the defence to corroborate this testimony. Thaw will plead justification, and there will be no reference to the insanities law. In the final arguments the lawyers will dwell on the idea of temporary insanity.

By entering into an agreement of this sort Thaw escapes what on Wednesday seemed inevitable—a commission in lunacy. He risks occupying the electric chair at Sing Sing if the insanity plea does not hold with the jury. He escapes all risk time an indefinite sentence at Matteawan, the State Hospital for the criminal insane.

Clifford W. Hartridge remains as Thaw's personal counsel, and feels that in compromising with Thaw's wealthy relatives he has won a great victory for his client. The firm of Black, Olcott, Gruber & Bonynge is still in the case as Mrs. William Thaw's representative, but the evidence yesterday that before Thaw is actually brought to trial in October or November, the two firms will be working in absolute harmony. Mrs. Thaw's money and skill has made this compromise possible.

VERMONT NOW PROBES MEATS

Special to the Boston American.

BURLINGTON, Vt., July 27.—The State Board of Health began yesterday an inspection of all canned meats offered for sale in Vermont, but the result will not be announced for some time. Owing to the lack of funds the inspection was not begun before, and in order to accomplish it the board will have to curtail work in other directions.

COLUMBIA'S MARINES RECOVER

All the sick marines who were brought from Panama by the cruiser Columbia and placed in the Marine Hospital at Chelsea are well and will now be sent to their former stations.

BUSINESS NOTICE.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

"AS IN A LOOKING-GLASS"

"I never knew what a lot of things they want you to remember, these lawyers, and it is just like looking into a mirror and seeing everything that you have ever done after an interview with them."—From the only statement made by Evelyn Nesbit Thaw to the BOSTON AMERICAN.

EVELYN NESBIT THAW SEES HERSELF IN THE LAWYER'S MIRROR.

PEARY'S WIFE SAYS HUSBAND IS SURELY SAFE

Tells American That, Win or Lose, Explorer is Making His Last Try to Reach Pole.

Special to the Boston American.

PORTLAND, Me., July 27. "It was just a year ago yesterday, July 26," said Mrs. Josephine D. Peary, wife of Robert E. Peary, the famous Arctic explorer, "that my husband sailed on his expedition to the North Pole. As yet no message has been received from him, but I am positive he is safe and that word will come before October at least. Success should be the news this time, and I have greater confidence than ever before that my husband will succeed in his undertaking."

Mrs. Peary came up the bay from her home on Eagle Island and was seen by many friends, who remembered the day as the anniversary of Peary's departure on the Roosevelt in 1905 from North Sidney, C. B., on his dash to the pole. Mrs. Peary is not alarmed by the reports expressing fear for the safety of the famous explorer, and she confidently awaits a message.

She says that a cable is expected from Peary in September from the telegraph station at Seattle. Should no word or news come from him, it will be evident that he will require another year for the work," said Mrs. Peary. The daring explorer told his wife before he left that he would try to get a message to her, and the orderly he sent for Dwight an Eskimo whom he would send south with dispatches. This message is due in September.

"Although the fact has never been published," said Mrs. Peary to a BOSTON AMERICAN reporter, "this is my husband's last trip in search of the Pole, win or lose. When he left me he said this would be his last polar voyage, and he was confident that it would result in his finding the North Pole. He has everything in his favor. The experience of former trips is what he relies upon, and we have high hopes of a remarkable achievement."

In speaking of the possibility of her husband failing, met by Wellman in his balloon, Mrs. Peary expressed the opinion that Wellman's plan is no more feasible than Andree's.

Judge F. C. Reynolds of South Portland, a life-long friend of Peary, is also confident that the explorer is safe and that success will crown his efforts on his last trip.

S. W. JONES FOR COUNCIL

Seward W. Jones of Newton, president of the Newton Centre Savings Bank and Treasurer of the Jones Brothers Company, granite dealers, with offices at No. 161 Summer street, city, is a Republican candidate for Governor's Council from the new Sixth Councillor District, created by the last Legislature. Mr. Jones's friends say that all the principal cities in the new district have been represented in the council since Newton, and that Mr. Jones is Newton's logical candidate on the ground that he was stated to be the next councillor candidate when the old Third District was changed. Mr. Jones has served on his ward and city Republican committees for eight years, has been chairman of his congressional district committee for six years, and had charge of Lieutenant-Governor Draper's campaign last Fall. He was a member of the Newton Board of Health for thirteen years.

EXPELLED FOR DEATH RESOLVE

CHICAGO, July 27.—Alderman Daniel Herlihy of the 26th ward was a member in good standing of the steam engineers' union until last night. Now he is an "outcast" from that organization and for a strange reason. He was expelled from the union because a few weeks ago he introduced into the city council a resolution calling upon the State Legislature to make attacks upon women and girls punishable by death.

The Union, through the medium of a series of sharp resolutions, "deplored the outrages upon women and children," and declared that insane asylums and hospitals are the proper places for the weak minded persons who make such attacks.

TOO MANY RABBITS FOR VERMONT CROPS

DORSET, Vt., July 27.—The law preventing the killing of rabbits except at certain periods of the year has permitted such an increase in these animals that crops have been destroyed and a movement has been started here to have the law repealed at the coming session of the Legislature.

KIPLING IN VERSE SCORES BRITAIN AGAIN

Bitterly Attacks the Government's Proposals for the Boer Colonies.

LONDON, July 27. Adopting the view largely held by the British in South Africa and by many at home that the government's promised grant of responsible government to the Transvaal means the retrocession of the country to the Boers, Rudyard Kipling contributes to the Standard a poem of six stanzas depleting the colonists as being sold shamefully into bondage, and appealing to Great Britain to prevent it. Following is a sample of the poem:

Back to the ancient bitterness
We ended once for all;
Back to oppression none may guess,
Who have not learn the thrall.
Back to the sleights of hate despond,
Hebets anew held fast
By England's soul upon the bond,
As hebets to the last.

Another stanza reads:

Now, even now, before men learn
How near we broke our trust;
Now, even now, our gains return
Dominion to the dust;
Now, ere the gates of Mercy close—
Forever and aloof—
That sells his sons to serve his foes,
Will England make us safe?

FINDS STOLEN HORSE AFTER SIX MONTHS

S. P. Larsen of Somerville says he is a lucky man. He has just found a valuable horse which was stolen from his stable six months ago in Malden. After a long search the animal was located at North Conway, N. H.

THREE HURT BECAUSE HE WAVED HIS HAND

GORHAM, N. H., July 27.—Because an over-zealous friend jumped out of the tall grass to wave a farewell to his departing guests, three of them were injured in a fully-ho accident yesterday. The horses took fright and upset the coach.

TO BREAK SAGE WILL, CHARGE HE WAS INSANE

Lawyer for Troy Heirs Says He Sewed on Buttons and Mended Ragged Garments.

WORE NO UNDERCLOTHES

By Boston American Leased Wire.

NEW YORK, July 27.—While probate proceedings under the will of Russell Sage were going forward, A. Wells Stumpp, the lawyer who represents the relatives of the dead multi-millionaire, began gathering evidence to prove him insane when the instrument was signed.

Every indication today promises one of the greatest and most sensational contests in the history of the American courts, with the fortune, once to the fortune of $60,000,000 Russell Sage left intact to his widow.

Lawyer Stumpp stand in the matter, as he explained to-day, was emphatic.

"The long list of Russell Sage are determined to prove that Russell Sage was insane when he signed his will," Stumpp said. "If the case is will contest at law, the proceedings will begin that the testator was one of the strongest evidence ever offered in any court.

Says He Had Senile Illusions.

"We can show," said Lawyer Stumpp, "that sometime prior to the signing of the will Russell Sage was playing a trick on the weird sisters in the cave of Thomas Reilly, a miser. At that time Russell Sage was eighty-six years old. He had become completely incompetent and although he appeared almost daily at his office, he was taken there by Reilly merely to humor the old man's senile illusions.

"When Reilly was placed in charge of the old man he found him in a most deplorable state. The old man was going about in ragged clothes, did not wear underclothing and was in the habit of sewing on buttons about, even with the sewing on of buttons, the garments in which he was clad were the cleanest, a matter from his poor condition.

"It was due to Reilly that these things were changed and Russell Sage at least presented the appearance of being in his right mind."

SIX CHILDREN AT A BIRTH, ALL WELL

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 27. A report to Kingston, this State, has been all previous records by giving birth to six children at once. The offsprings are well formed and healthy.

Let's All Go Down to Gray's
And get a pure dyed-in-the-wool blue serge suit for $7.90. They are the $15 kind. F. Gray Co., Washington and Hanover sts.

UNION LABOR ORGANIZES FOR ELECTION WORK

Each Ward to Have a Committee to Look Up Records of Candidates.

SYSTEMATIC WORK ON

Systematic work in defeating for public office the enemies of labor has begun. Committees from the Wage Earners' Clubs of Boston have been appointed by the executive committee of the Central Club and will be located in the various wards of the city. A special committee has been assigned to each ward and its work will be the same as that of the other party ward committees.

The record of every candidate for the State and national houses will be looked into by the ward committees and word will be sent to all trade unionists as to the attitude of the candidates toward organized labor. The ward committees will keep in close touch with the executive board of the Central Club so that the political work may be more intelligently conducted.

The Somerville Wage Earners' Club is one of the first to announce active war-fare. An open meeting will be held in Union Hall, Union square, Somerville, Monday night. Just as soon as the other clubs are thoroughly organized they will conduct open meetings at which the labor candidates will be the principal speakers.

President Potts and Secretary Nolan of the Central Club are elated at the progress of organization so far and at the prospects for greater work. The State organization will look only to Representatives and Senators, while the various local clubs will do as they please in the matter of city or town politics.

FEAR MUTINY; WARSHIPS ARE ORDERED HOME

Government Appeals to People for Support in the Restoration of Order.

PEASANTS GRANTED LAND

ST. PETERSBURG, July 27. The mutiny of marine has sent telegraphic orders to the commanders of Russian warships in the Baltic sea to hasten home to reinforce Kronstadt as reports of the serious unrest among the soldiers increase.

The government has issued an appeal through the semi-official organ, the Rossia calling upon the people to see that order grows and help the authorities to put down all disorder. The article continues:

"The government is powerless to remove order unless it has the support of the public. The public must choose between anarchy and a liberal government on constitutional principles in a whirlwind of revolution."

The principal item in the czar's reform program, which is now being drawn up, will be an extensive land grants for the peasants on easy terms of payment.

BABY BOY'S ITCHING HUMOR

At Age of Two Weeks Great Sores Broke Out—Head and Face Were Terrible Sight—Treated by Doctors and Hospital but Child Grew Worse—Could Not Sleep.

CURED BY CUTICURA AT EXPENSE OF 75c.

"I wish to have you accept this testimonial, as your Cuticura has done so much for my baby. At the age of two weeks his head broke out, then broke out with great sores and at the age of two months his face and head were an awful sight. I consulted a doctor, who said it was nothing but a light skin disease which the baby would soon get over. He seemed to grow worse, so I called another doctor. His opinion seemed to be the same. They both prescribed medicine that did not do a bit of good. A friend advised me to take him to the hospital, which I did. Two doctors gave me medicine that was in a liquid form. Their medicine did him no good. Nearly every day I would read a testimonial in regard to Cuticura and my wife thought she would try it to see if it would help the baby. I got a box of Cuticura Ointment and a cake of Cuticura Soap. After using these he has become entirely cured. He couldn't seem to sleep as his face and head would itch so. What hair he had all fell out and to-day he has a nice head of hair and his face is as clean as can be. (signed) C. H. Evans, 10 Alston St., Somerville, Mass., June 7, 1905."

SLEEP FOR BABIES

Rest for Mothers.

Instant relief and refreshing sleep for skin-tortured babies, and rest for tired, fretted mothers, in warm baths with Cuticura Soap and gentle anointings with Cuticura Ointment, the great skin cure, and purest of emollients.

Complete External and Internal Treatment for every Humor from Pimples to Scrofula, from Infancy to Age, consisting of Cuticura Soap, 25c., Ointment, 50c., Resolvent, 50c., or Chocolate Coated Pills, 25c. per vial. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Boston.

"How to Cure Skin and Blood Diseases," Mailed Free.

Special Values

Prior to Stock-taking

Summer Underwear for Men 65c

Ordinary Price $1.50

Something superior in summer underwear.

Not the kind that clings with clammy sickness, making the hot days a weariness to the flesh.

Beautiful soft, silky, porous shirts and drawers. Delightfully pleasant to wear.

Mercerized fabric of superior quality, in cool and delicate summer shades—Nova, Fern, Blue, Tan and White.

A. Shuman & Co. Boston

$10 Outing Suits, $4.90

F. Gray Co. will offer 400 of them Friday and Saturday. Cor. Washington and Hanover sts. 600 men's $2 pants, 99c.

BOARD AND ROOMS.

227 HARRISON AV.—Front room, housekeeping; large bath; use rooms about $1; clean; quiet.

136 WASHINGTON ST.—Large connected rooms for light housekeeping; first floor front; all conveniences.

LOST AND FOUND.

LOST—July 21, Brown fur, red stone. Finder please communicate with S. U. K., 169 Congress st. Reward and carfare repaid.

HELP WANTED—Male.

WANTED—First-class collectmakers. Apply to BIR. ROCKWELL, Dolly Dean Co., Somerville Jct., Mass.

Hearst's Boston American

Largest Circulation in New England

AVERAGES FOR JUNE:

SUNDAY

303,027

DAILY

349,664

During June the BOSTON AMERICAN made the Greatest Gains

In Advertising and In Circulation of Any Paper in Boston.

AFTER 43DAYS' DELAY, GUILD MOVES AGAINST RAILROAD TRUST

TO TEST GRIP OF NEW HAVEN ON TROLLEYS

In Line With Boston American's Quo Warranto Petition of June 14.

'MERGER' RIGHTS IN DOUBT

At last, after forty three days' delay, the legality of the street railway holdings in Massachusetts by the New Haven Railroad is to be tested.

Governor Guild has taken a hand in the matter, brought to the attention of the State's law department on June 14 by the BOSTON AMERICAN, and in communications to the Board of Railroad Commissioners and Attorney General Malone has strongly indicated his desire for action in the premises.

Chairman Jackson of the railroad board, in his reply to the Governor's communication, briefly reviews the history of "merger" legislation and unequivocally declares and a test of the legality of the New Haven holdings and control in Massachusetts trolley lines should be made at once.

Chairman Jackson calls attention to the opinion of ex-Attorney General Parker to the effect that on the facts presented to him during the legislative session of 1905 these holdings and control by the New Haven Railroad were illegal.

THE AMERICAN'S PETITION.

On June 14 the BOSTON AMERICAN, through Attorney James T. Auerbach, filed a petition with the Attorney General asking for quo warranto proceedings against the New York & New Haven railroad for the purpose of declaring illegal and void the ownership of said railroad in street railway stocks in Massachusetts, and asking for an injunction also, to prevent such ownership and control and for such further relief measures, including forfeiture of the franchise, as should seem lawful and meet in the eyes of the court.

Beyond the acknowledgment of the receipt of the petition on the part of Attorney General and the assurance of "careful consideration," the next information of action in the matter is that by Governor Guild in his letter to the Governor, and the railroad board notwithstanding, in fact more than 43 days HAVE ELAPSED since the petition was filed.

Attorney-General Malone, under yesterday's date, replies to the Governor, acknowledges the receipt of the Governor's letter on the subject and informs His Excellency that the matter is having my careful consideration."

Chairman James F. Jackson's reply to the Governor is as follows:

Jackson's Letter.

"Commonwealth of Massachusetts,
"Board of Railroad Commissioners,
"Boston, July 25, 1906.

Dear Sir:—On my return last Thursday from a visit to England in the performance of official duty, your communication addressed by your Excellency to this board, under date of the 20th of June, 1906, was given immediate attention. We respectfully submit our reply herewith.

"When it became apparent in 1904 that the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company, through the Consolidated Railway Company of Connecticut, was acquiring control of street railways in Massachusetts, the general public, and the action of the railroad management to the provisions of Sec. 7, Chap. 111, Revised Laws, which prohibit railroad corporations from holding the stock of other corporations, in the provisions of Sec. 11, Chap. 126, Revised Laws, which, in case of such control of a railroad, direct the street railway companies, in certain contingencies, subject the directors of such companies to possible forfeiture.

House Against Change.

"The board, in its annual report of Jan uary, 1905, brought the matter before the Legislature, as the tribunal which could most effectually deal with it, either by removing all doubt as to the requirement of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company, or by relieving such corporations from the limitations of existing laws, and subjecting such companies to other States in connection with the recent development of electric railways.

"The differing rights, as foreign and domestic corporations in respect to the hold ing of stock of other corporations, of the status of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company, as a foreign and a domestic corporation were discussed before the Committee of the Legislature of 1905 at the public hearing upon the annual report of the board. The committee then agreed upon a bill permitting domestic corporations to acquire street railway properties. That bill passed the Senate, but met opposition in the House, the main basis being a radical conflict of views between this board and the railroad corporations upon that matter.

Declared Illegal Once.

"Pending the debate, the attorney-general, the Hon. Herbert Parker, was asked by the House for an opinion as to the legality of the action of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad company upon stated facts; and the opinion was rendered by Judge Parker to the effect that the action as it and with respect to the holding of the stock in question, comes, in the opinion of the attorney-general, within the prohibition of the board are respectfully herewith for your reference. It appears that the committee of the attorney-general of the action of the railroad company upon the facts presented, to be in his opinion illegal. Upon the coming of the Legislature of 1905 was the reference of the matter and the questions to the joint recess committee on railroads and railway taxation.

"During the session of that committee, in October, 1905, this board furnished the Attorney General with a statement of the facts connected with the action taken by the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company in acquiring control of railroad and railway lines in Massachusetts. At a subsequent interview the then Attorney General acknowledged the receipt of this information, stated his belief that in view of the fact that the policy of the Commonwealth upon this subject was then under review by the Legislature, and was so by direction of the Legislature, and would necessarily be considered at the coming session, any proceeding to test the legality of the control complained of by the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company would be a matter for action of the Legislature in the premises.

Legality Should Be Tested.

"After a long and thorough consideration of the subject this board is of the opinion that proceedings should be taken to test the legality of the action of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company in acquiring control of railroad and railway lines in Massachusetts, and that the question should be raised at once.

"Chairman Jackson calls attention to the opinion of ex-Attorney General Parker to the effect that on the facts presented to him during the legislative session of 1905 these holdings and control by the New Haven Railroad were illegal.

THE AMERICAN'S PETITION.

On June 14 the BOSTON AMERICAN, through Attorney James T. Auerbach, filed a petition with the Attorney General asking for quo warranto proceedings against the New York & New Haven railroad for the purpose of declaring illegal and void the ownership of said railroad in street railway stocks in Massachusetts, and asking for an injunction also, to prevent such ownership and control and for such further relief measures, including forfeiture of the franchise, as should seem lawful and meet in the eyes of the court.

Beyond the acknowledgment of the receipt of the petition on the part of Attorney General and the assurance of "careful consideration," the next information of action in the matter is that by Governor Guild in his letter to the Governor, and the railroad board notwithstanding, in fact more than 43 days HAVE ELAPSED since the petition was filed.

Attorney-General Malone, under yesterday's date, replies to the Governor, acknowledges the receipt of the Governor's letter on the subject and informs His Excellency that the matter is having my careful consideration."

Chairman James F. Jackson's reply to the Governor is as follows:

Jackson's Letter.

"Commonwealth of Massachusetts,
"Board of Railroad Commissioners,
"Boston, July 25, 1906.

Dear Sir:—On my return last Thursday from a visit to England in the performance of official duty, your communication addressed by your Excellency to this board, under date of the 20th of June, 1906, was given immediate attention. We respectfully submit our reply herewith.

"When it became apparent in 1904 that the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company, through the Consolidated Railway Company of Connecticut, was acquiring control of street railways in Massachusetts, the general public, and the action of the railroad management to the provisions of Sec. 7, Chap. 111, Revised Laws, which prohibit railroad corporations from holding the stock of other corporations, in the provisions of Sec. 11, Chap. 126, Revised Laws, which, in case of such control of a railroad, direct the street railway companies, in certain contingencies, subject the directors of such companies to possible forfeiture.

House Against Change.

"The board, in its annual report of January, 1905, brought the matter before the Legislature, as the tribunal which could most effectually deal with it, either by removing all doubt as to the requirement of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company, or by relieving such corporations from the limitations of existing laws, and subjecting such companies to other States in connection with the recent development of electric railways.

"The differing rights, as foreign and domestic corporations in respect to the holding of stock of other corporations, of the status of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company, as a foreign and a domestic corporation were discussed before the Committee of the Legislature of 1905 at the public hearing upon the annual report of the board. The committee then agreed upon a bill permitting domestic corporations to acquire street railway properties. That bill passed the Senate, but met opposition in the House, the main basis being a radical conflict of views between this board and the railroad corporations upon that matter.

Declared Illegal Once.

"Pending the debate, the attorney-general, the Hon. Herbert Parker, was asked by the House for an opinion as to the legality of the action of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad company upon stated facts; and the opinion was rendered by Judge Parker to the effect that the action as it and with respect to the holding of the stock in question, comes, in the opinion of the attorney-general, within the prohibition of the board are respectfully herewith for your reference. It appears that the committee of the attorney-general of the action of the railroad company upon the facts presented, to be in his opinion illegal. Upon the coming of the Legislature of 1905 was the reference of the matter and the questions to the joint recess committee on railroads and railway taxation.

"During the session of that committee, in October, 1905, this board furnished the Attorney General with a statement of the facts connected with the action taken by the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company in acquiring control of railroad and railway lines in Massachusetts. At a subsequent interview the then Attorney General acknowledged the receipt of this information, stated his belief that in view of the fact that the policy of the Commonwealth upon this subject was then under review by the Legislature, and was so by direction of the Legislature, and would necessarily be considered at the coming session, any proceeding to test the legality of the control complained of by the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company would be a matter for action of the Legislature in the premises.

Legality Should Be Tested.

"After a long and thorough consideration of the subject this board is of the opinion that proceedings should be taken to test the legality of the action of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company in acquiring control of railroad and railway lines in Massachusetts, and that the question should be raised at once.

"To the inquiry concerning 'holding companies,' we would say that there is no State law which attempts to deal with subsequently associations organized for the purpose of acquiring and holding stock, or to the so-called capital and surplus of holding companies; or to the power in which they participate; the dividends have elapsed since the BOSTON AMERICAN filed with the Attorney-General a formal information and petition that he bring suit to force the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad and the Boston & Albany Railroad to obey the law and to abandon the competing trolley lines which they have illegally acquired.

43 DAYS

Why does the Attorney-General delay?

It receive from the stocks which they

A 1901 these unincorporated holding relations were under consideration by the Legislature, and at that time the be. In reply to questions asked, gave fallouse of Representatives a statement sorts concerning them. A copy of this ament is found in Public Document N14 of 1902, pages 57-67.

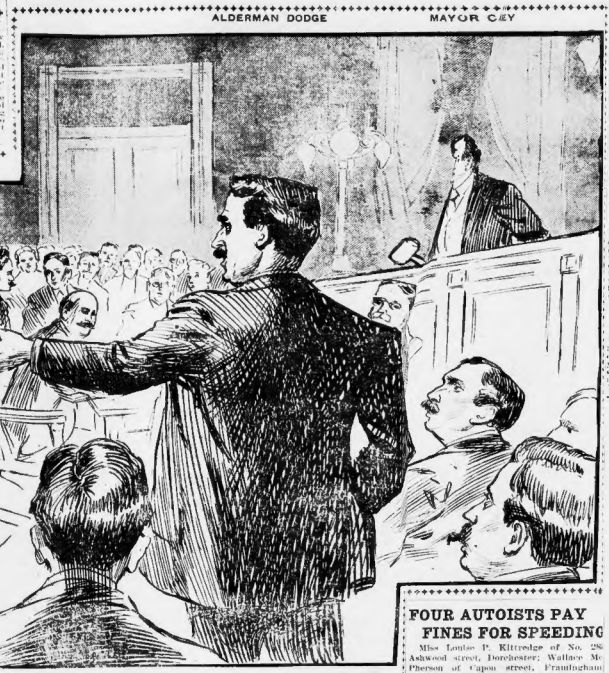
"Very respectfully,
"JAMES F. JACKSON,
"Chairman."

ROCKBRIDGE, July 26. "I have not heard," he added.

LOWELL GRAFT CHARGES ARE NOW IN PROSECUTOR'S HANDS

ALDERMAN DODGE CALLING HAYES COWARD AT LOWELL GRFT HEARING

Sketched at Meeting of the Lowell Aldermen by Boston American Staff Ar.



STREUB TAKEN TO JAIL UNTIL TRIAL BEGINS

Police Want Son's Body Exhumed to Learn Nature of the Wounds.

KNIFE WAS SHARPENED

GREAT BARRINGTON, July 27.—Emil Streub, charged with the murder of his twelve-year-old son, John, is now in the jail at Pittsfield, held without bail until August 3, for a hearing. He pleaded not guilty in the South Berkshire district court.

When the train passed the spot where the body of his son was found, Streub looked out at the opposite side of the car.

Officers now profess to have ascertained that Streub has recently sharpened his knife, and thus, they say, made it impossible to connect it with the one used to cut the birch boughs with which the body of young Streub was concealed. The knife used was nickel covered, it is said. The officers are trying to find if young Streub took the family savings from a tin box when he left home. They also desire to have the body exhumed to make sure with what instrument the wounds were made.

BIG TRADE WITH PARIS.

Paris, July 28.—The Consular report on the total value of exports to the United States from the Paris district has just been completed. It shows that during the fiscal year ending on June 30 goods to the value of $52,037,683 were sold in America, as against a total of $40,810,478 for the year 1905, an increase of over 27 per cent.

Do it Now! Don't Wait Until It's Too Late!

KEEP your body clean!
Most people are very neat and clean in their outward appearance, but how about the inside?
Are you clean inside?
And if not, how can you face the world with clean thoughts, clear intelligence, a fair, just, bright mind and get your full share of capacity for work and enjoyment?

* * *

Neglect of exercise, rich over-feeding and carelessness about stools, often leave the delicate internal mechanism in a nasty mess.

*

The small intestine is compelled to absorb the poison of decaying matter instead of wholesome nourishment.

*

The liver gets inactive; the bile doesn't "work off"; the eyes get yellow; the skin gets dead like putty and pale like dough, disfigured with boils, pimples, blackheads and liver-spots.

*

There's only one solution to the problem: Keep clean inside all the time That's the answer.

If you can not diet, or keep your mechanism going by proper exercise take Cascarets, the sweet, fragrant harmless Bile vegetable tablets, the "act like exercise" on your bowels.

A Cascaret every night before going to bed will "work while you sleep" and make you "feel fine in the morning."

Take a Cascaret night and morning and break up the "constipated habit" without acquiring a "cathartic habit."

*

Cascarets are sold by all druggists, 10c, 25c and 50c. The 10c size trial box is a neat fit for the vest pocket or lady's purse.

Be sure to get the genuine with the "long-tailed C" on the box and the letters "CCC" on each tablet. They are never sold in bulk. M744

$1400 LOST BY LOVERING WAS HIS OWN MONEY

Man Divorced by Elsie Richmond Denies Charges by Wife No. 2.

Joseph Lovering, whose first wife, Elsie Richmond, the actress, divorced him in April, 1901, and whose second wife, Ida Sanborn of Wincheser, has begun suit against him for absolute divorce with all money, discussed his troubles with a BOSTON AMERICAN reporter today.

There was no trace of bitterness in his tones—no anger or unkindness or recrimination.

As far from bemoaning the misfortunes which have befallen him in large and discouraging doses during the last five years, he spoke with the breezy air of a man who has come out on the sunny side of the storm, whose philosophy teaches him to laugh in the face of affliction to "take 'em as they come."

One of the most grievous of Mr. Lovering's recent misfortunes was the loss of $1,400 on July 13 last in the Hotel Touraine, where the members of a merry automobile party were his guests.

It was reported at the time that the $1,400 belonged to his employers. Mr. Lovering insists that the money was his own.

Says Charges Are False.

"It was all mine," he said. "There was $1,400 in the roll when I registered at the Trafalgar at 2 o'clock in the morning. When I awoke at 7 the money had gone. I've offered a reward of $100 to any person who furnishes information that will lead to the recovery of the money. My counsel and myself are confident that we can point out the person who took it.

"We are absolutely sure that the guilty party is one of three persons. As a matter of fact we can pick the one who got away with the roll.

"As to the charges brought against me in the libel filed by my wife, they are absolutely false. That charge of excessive drinking, for instance, is ridiculously untrue. I drink the same as any other man, although I may say that I have felt the influence of liquor twice in the last year. I can bring forth a dozen reputable business men who will swear to that.

"I don't know where my wife got the idea that I used a drug. I never took a drug in my life. Do I look like a drug fiend?

Will Be Aired in Court.

"Then she charges cruel and abusive treatment. It must have been with my tongue, for I never struck a woman in my life.

"As far as the auto ride is concerned, it was perfectly proper. The girls were respectable and it was not our intention to stop in town. When we arrived in Boston the chauffeur I was sick, and that we would have had to go to some garage for more gasoline. So we decided to stop in town. We went to the Touraine and took adjoining suites.

"I shall not say anything about the divorce suit just now, but I could say a great deal if I wanted to. That will be aired in court, and the outcome may be different from what some folks expect."

Mr. Lovering is represented in his trouble by his old friend, R. H. Long, an attorney who has piloted him through other seas of domestic trouble.

Mr. Remy and Mr. Lovering state that they still do not know until the $1,000 that was stolen has been recovered.

COUPLE WED IN JAIL NOW HAVE DAUGHTER

NASHUA, N. H., July 27.—News comes from Chicago that a daughter was born July 21 to Charles W. Spalding, son of the late Judge Solomon Spalding of this city. His wife was formerly his stenographer and married him in Joliet prison, where he was serving a term for defalcation from the Globe Savings Bank, of which he was treasurer.

Alderman Dodge Announces that He Has Given District Attorney the Facts.

"I exposed what Alderman Hayes said, because I believed it my duty. This hearing is a farce, and to-day I have laid the facts before District Attorney Sanderson. I have been abused for reilling, but I did my duty when I found that Alderman Hayes was too much of a coward to expose corruption."

—Alderman Dodge of Lowell.

Special to the Boston American.

LOWELL, July 27.—The "graft" charge in connection with the recent telephone franchise question will be considered by the Board of Aldermen next Tuesday.

Last night the full Aldermanic board gathered in response to a special summons of Mayor James H. Casey, and the Mayor himself presided.

The Aldermanic chamber, gallery and floor was crowded.

Popular interest had been aroused over the "graft" charges so openly made in the meeting of the Aldermen last Tuesday night, and every Alderman showed in his demeanor the seriousness of the situation.

Alderman William J. Hayes of Ward 7, who made the charge that a representative of the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company offered him a bribe of $1,000, was the last member of the board to take his place about the semi-circle before Mayor Casey called the board to order.

The Mayor said that the statements so openly made at the Aldermanic meeting July 24 demanded action. He then read the statements of Alderman William H. Dodge and Alderman Hayes.

Alderman Dodge had said, in open session of the board, that Alderman Hayes had said, in the presence of three others, that the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company had offered him $1,000 to vote against the proposed franchise of the Merrimac Valley Independent Company.

Alderman Hayes had announced that the offer was made, but that although he voted with the New England Company, he had not taken a cent.

"We cannot compel Alderman Hayes," said the Mayor, "to renew his statement, and this hearing will go on only so far as Alderman Hayes will go. He states he wishes in substantiation of his charges of last Tuesday.

"If the board feels that its integrity has been assailed in any way, or believes that more stringent measures are to be taken than the Mayor will take measures suited to the case."

The Mayor then called upon Alderman Hayes to renew his charges if he cared to do so.

The Ward 7 Alderman rose from his seat in the centre of the Aldermanic semi-circle and announced that he was perfectly willing to repeat, on the Mayor's grand jury, what he had said in an executive session.

Alderman Dodge then asked if Alderman Hayes had said in executive session that the telephone company had offered him $1,000 to vote against the proposed franchise of the Merrimac Valley Independent Company.

Alderman Hayes said that he had said that.

Alderman Dodge then asked if Alderman Hayes had said, in the presence of three others, that the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company had offered him $1,000 to vote against the proposed franchise of the Merrimac Valley Independent Company.

Alderman Hayes had announced that the offer was made, but that although he voted with the New England Company, he had not taken a cent.

"We cannot compel Alderman Hayes," said the Mayor, "to renew his statement, and this hearing will go on only so far as Alderman Hayes will go. He states he wishes in substantiation of his charges of last Tuesday.

"If the board feels that its integrity has been assailed in any way, or believes that more stringent measures are to be taken than the Mayor will take measures suited to the case."

The Mayor then called upon Alderman Hayes to renew his charges if he cared to do so.

The Ward 7 Alderman rose from his seat in the centre of the Aldermanic semi-circle and announced that he was perfectly willing to repeat, on the Mayor's grand jury, what he had said in an executive session

AUTOPSY BEING HELD ON WINNIE GOODELL'S BODY

THEORY OF ACCIDENT IS NOW HELD

No Sign of Foul Play on Remains Recovered, as 'Spirit' Prophesied, from Pond.

FATHER IS COMFORTED

Special to the Boston American.

AMHERST, July 27. The autopsy upon the body of Miss Winnie M. Goodell, which was recovered from Upper Pond, Belchertown, after a disappearance of many days, began at 9:25 o'clock to-day in the undertaking rooms of E. D. Marsh, on Main street. The autopsy is being performed by Medical Examiner Worthington W. Miner of Ware, and R. M. Branch of Amherst, who will determine the cause of death.

Persons who have seen the body since it was recovered from the pond declare that there is no doubt but what the girl was accidentally drowned. They declare there are no marks of violence which would indicate that the girl had been murdered. When the girl disappeared it was thought that she had been murdered and her body concealed in the woods.

The witnesses present at the autopsy are Nelson Randall, chairman of the Board of Selectmen of Belchertown; Deputy Sheriff Myron T. Barton of Belchertown, and State Detective Alfred B. Hodges of Taunton, who has worked on the case since Sunday.

In White Plush Casket.

While the autopsy was being performed in the basement of the store the father of the girl appeared to select a casket in which Miss Goodell's body is to be buried. He decided upon a white plush casket, in which the girl's body will be placed immediately after the autopsy. The casket will be locked, not to be reopened by order of the authorities, owing to its decomposed state and the bloated condition of the face.

As the father, Wesley M. Goodell, left the undertaking establishment, he said to a BOSTON AMERICAN reporter:

"When I rowed out to receive my daughter's body I was not afraid or nervous. When I reached her body I addressed her in these words:

"Winnie, you came up as I said you would.

"I told my wife at the start that I could lie on the bed and cry like a child, but that would accomplish nothing. Instead of being dismayed, I was actually happy when I saw her body rise yesterday.

"I have been at the pond every day for the past twenty days, from 4 o'clock in the morning until sunset, looking for my dear body. A great load was lifted from my mind when I saw the body rise. I have taken the loss of my daughter in a philosophic way. I believe what is to be will be."

Funeral at 1:30 To-morrow.

The funeral will be held from the Goodell home to-morrow at 1:30 p. m. The casket will be sent from here this afternoon Rev. J. B. Adkins, the Congregational minister at Belchertown, will perform the ceremony and the burial will be in a little cemetery at Dwight's station.

To a BOSTON AMERICAN reporter District Attorney Irwin said:

"If there is any indication of foul play I will proceed to have an inquest at once and if necessary make arrests. The case will be thoroughly investigated.

"Medical Examiner Miner made a superficial examination of the body late last night, but found nothing to indicate foul play. There were no finger or rope marks on the throat. No bones were broken and the skull was not bruised or fractured. I believe the last analysis will be that Miss Goodell was accidentally drowned. Dr. Miner did not examine the girl's trunk, but that will be done to-day. The clothes were not disarranged.

Think Death Was Accidental.

"Lightly clutched in her right hand the dead girl held a kerchief. I understand a train went by the pond about the time she went there. This would indicate that while waving to a trainman she lost her balance and fell from the boat to her death."

Associate Medical Examiner G. F. Thompson of Belchertown, who was the first official to view the body, said: "There were no marks of violence on the body. I believe Miss Goodell was accidentally drowned."

State Detective Alfred B. Rodges, who has worked on the case all the week, said: "I believed from the first that Miss Goodell fell overboard while about to gather lilies. The latest developments substantiate that belief."

It is to the persistence of her father, Wesley M. Goodell, that the finding of the body of Winnie Goodell is due. He would not give up his belief that she was drowned, a belief that was strengthened by the prediction of the medium that she was at the bottom of the lake. He continued to drag and probe the mud under the water. Yesterday afternoon, accompanied by Lindsay Smith, a cousin of the dead girl, he rowed about Upper Pond.

Mr. Smith was at the oars and Mr. Goodell had a long pole with which he occasionally stirred the mud of the bottom, thinking that the body might be held down by weed or lily roots. About 100 feet from the southern shore the pole hit something. Nothing appeared, and the boat slid along over the water.

Body Shot Out of Water.

One hundred feet farther, and there came a scream from the shore. The father glanced around. There, as though shot from the bottom by a gun, was the body of his daughter Winnie H. war, clear of the water, fully exposed when he saw it. A half a dozen others on the shore saw it at the same time.

The body was in an upright position with the right arm extended, holding a handkerchief, and moving up and down in the water. At times the entire upper half of the body to the waistline was visible, and again only the head showed above the surface.

Mr. Goodell at once rowed to the body. With iron nerve he fastened a rope to the body of his daughter and, with his nephew, Smith, rowing the boat, dragged the body to the shore. Officers took charge of the body, which was wrapped in a blanket, which Mr. Goodell has carried to the lake daily for this purpose. A boat was secured and a door from a neighboring building. The body was laid upon the door and taken in the boat to a building near the Schillaire cottage.

Thore Lindsay Smith stood guard over the lifeless form with Constable Dillon, while Mr. Goodell rode to Dwight station, five miles distant, and telephoned the medical examiner. Mr. Goodell and Smith have dragged the pond from dawn till dusk for the past twenty days.

MAYOR'S REJECTED CANDIDATE UP

In spite of a unanimous rejection of Melvin F. Underwood as commissioner of electric lights and lines by the Board of Aldermen four months ago, Mayor Grimmons of Somerville has again presented the same candidate. Ever since the first rejection there has been considerable criticism between the board and the Mayor, and it is believed that the action of four months ago will be repeated.

This Prophecy Came True

"Be sure you search for my body in the water on the north side of Upper Pond, lower than where the boat was found."—Spirit message given the BOSTON AMERICAN three days ago by Dr. Ezekiel Abbey as coming from Winnie Goodell.

Will This Be Found True?

"I see there has been foul play. Miss Goodell's body was moved by the dynamite, but it is still deep in the mud. When it is found, the mystery will be all the greater."—Dr. Abbey, after his trance.

STRAY DOGS FED BY WALDORF-ASTORIA

GREENWICH, Ct., July 27. Two hundred cats coming and one hundred dogs already received at the Leahy farm will spend their Summer vacation here. The animals are all stray ones gathered in the city of New York by the Ride-A-Wee Society.

These denizens of alleys and by streets formerly fed on refuse from the Waldorf Astoria, for Miss Clover Boldt, daughter of the proprietor of that hostelry is much interested in the work of the humane society.

LITTLE MAINE LAD LOST IN THIS CITY

Lying on a bench in the South Station, tired, dirty, hungry, and crying as if his heart would break, a little lad of nine years, who gave his name as Harry Forbes, from Augusta, Me., was found by Patrolman Sindler early this morning.

The long railroad journey and the crowds had bewildered the little fellow, and after wandering around for hours he realized that he was lost. He was sent here by his father and was going to see his mother, but lost her address.

COULDN'T WED, SWEETHEARTS DIE TOGETHER

Bodies Found Locked in Last Embrace

PHILADELPHIA [illegible] open others arms. [illegible] race Katzke, aged [illegible] Ella Miller, a beautiful [illegible] Delaware River, in which [illegible] were found after disappearance of Uncle [illegible] Uncle had Tuesday.

The couple had [illegible] great times, but [illegible] even when Katzke [illegible] were going [illegible] and he wished [illegible] the coroner did [illegible] cousin, jokingly, [illegible] door and lay [illegible]

From that [illegible] in each other's arms [illegible] jumped in together.

JAMES A. GARLAND'S CONDITION SERIOUS

The condition of [illegible] Garland, the wealthy Boston and New York [illegible] who went to special [illegible] the Summer home at Pride's [illegible] for the benefit of [illegible] The attending physician [illegible] that he was [illegible] but any hopes of recovery [illegible] but those closely connected [illegible] is failing fast.

EMPLOYES TO SHARE IN GAS PROFITS

Eight Hundred Eligibles to Get 7 Per Cent. of Salaries At End of Year.

Eight hundred employes of the Boston Consolidated Gas Company are to be made stockholders in the earnings of the company, and will receive at the close of the year ending June 30, 1907, 7 per cent of the salaries after disappropriation of the earnings of the company, and in addition, the eligible for positions as directors of the company.

This plan was decided upon at a meeting of the board of directors yesterday. It is indirectly the result of the sliding scale recently adopted, by which the company increases its dividends as it reduces the price of gas.

Every employe is eligible to this division, from office boys up. Over $75,000 will be distributed in this way next year.

3-CENT FARE OCT. 15, SAYS MAYOR JOHNSON

CLEVELAND, O., July 27. Mayor Johnson has fixed October 15 as the date on which the Municipal Traction Company will operate the first 3-cent fare car over the Fulton road line to the public square, despite the present injunction to the contrary.

MAD CAT BITES BABY; TRIES TO TEAR ITS EYES

Sinks Teeth Into Face, Boy Fights to Save Mother From Attack.

After fighting desperately to protect his eyes from being torn out by a mad cat, and suffering terrible wounds from a bite which the animal had inflicted on the end of his leg, George Weer, the five-year-old son of Patrolman Michael West of Malden, tried to rescue his mother when the animal turned upon her. Mrs. West arrived just in time to prevent it from reaching her and freed a baby into its head.

The boy was playing in the yard when the cat sprang upon him and a desperate and unusual battle followed. The wound on the boy's leg is severe and dangerous and the physicians fear blood poisoning.

FIND BOY'S SKELETON AFTER THREE YEARS

NEWBURG, N. Y., July 27. Identification of a skeleton and bits of clothing as that of Charles Flanagan by his mother, who has been searching for him since he disappeared, it was thought the boy was kidnapped, but the skeleton was found in the bottom of a gas tank. The child had evidently fallen in.

DELEGATES INSTRUCTED FOR HEARST

Wyoming County, N. Y., Democratic Convention in Line for Him for Governor.

Special to the Boston American.

WARSAW, N. Y., July 27. The Wyoming County Democratic convention held in the Opera House yesterday, unanimously adopted resolutions indorsing William R. Hearst for the Democratic nomination for Governor, and instructed the delegates to the State convention to vote for Mr. Hearst first and all the time as long as his name is before that convention.

In the Opera House, while the convention was in session, were many independent Republicans, who joined heartily in the applause as the resolutions were being read. The gathering was called to order by Chairman John Underhill of the Democratic county committee.

DONLIN IN UNIFORM.

NEW YORK, July 27. Mike Donlin was in uniform yesterday. The crippled Giant hobbled out on the field and shared the big welcome extended the Giants. The spirit's there, but Donlin's ankle can't be built like Mike declares that he will play within a few weeks, but he hopes he had yesterday indicates an injury which will stubbornly resist efforts to get speed up.

At Our Monster Alteration Sale

NEVER before during The Big Store's entire career has the volume of business been so tremendous—We take no credit for this unparalleled success, it was no clever move on our part to so sacrifice our high-grade stock—but the immediate need for room demanded terrific price cutting—The carpenters are waiting—Our stock must still be reduced—Join the crowds at the greatest money-saving clothing sale ever held in Boston.

$10 Suits - - - 5.75

Fancy gray cheviots with overplaid effect, Indigo Blue Serges, all thoroughly tailored. Regularly priced $10, during sale .....

$12 Suits - - - 7.45

Select among many styles one of these fancy worsted suits or an overplaid cheviot cassimere or tweed. Each one worth $12, now .....

$3.00 Outing Trousers—You would willingly pay $3.00 for them—flannels in stripes and checks—also homspuns and cheviots—to close . 1.95

$2.00—$2.50—$3.00 Straw Hats—Nothing spared—take your choice—splits, sennets, Milan and Mackinaw braids 98c

$13.50 Suits - - - 8.60

No man need go shabbily dressed when such suits are offered Serges, cassimeres, tweeds and gray mixtures are worth $13.50; sale price..

$15 Suits - - - - 9.70

Beautiful patterns in the latest models find favor in this line. Light and dark colorings, blues and blacks; in fact, every kind of cloth. Your choice.

$2.50 Business Trousers—Strong striped worsteds, dependable values, all sizes, excellent patterns, now 1.65

Men's Outing Suits, specially constructed of Summer fabrics, skeleton and half lined flannels and homespuns sacrificed for half and less, were 7.50, 10.00, 15.00 4.85, 6.75, 8.60

$16.50 Suits - - - - 11.65

The famous Poole and Bell models, broad shoulders, centre and side vent coats. Worsteds, Hockamm cheviots, Sawyer cassimeres all go at

$18 Suits - - - - - 13.50

All hand tailored suits in this range fit for the best dressed man; all the newest shades and styles. Every new fabric, smooth and rough finished, single and double-breasted models.....

Boys' Clothing Bargains

Boys' 2-piece Suits that were $3.00, now . . .	1.95
Boys' 2-piece Suits that were $4.00, now . . .	2.95
Boys' Russian Wash Suits that were $2.00, now .	1.29
Boys' Wash Pants that were 39c, now	25c
Young Men's Outing Suits that were $10.00, 16 to 20 years, now	6.75

Washington, Hanover and Elm Streets

Unusual Shirt Sale

Too many shirts and need of valuable room cut the price on 100 dozen Negligee Shirts, corded percales and madras. Regular value 85c, while they last 55c

NEW BALLOT BOXES OFFERED BY MR. HEARST

Would Present Them Free of Cost in Order to Save Ballots for Recount.

JUDGES TO GIVE DECISION

NEW YORK, July 27.—Speculation ceases today as to the decision to be handed down by the judges in the offer made yesterday by William Randolph Hearst to give New York city new ballot boxes in order that the boxes containing the ballots cast at the disputed mayoralty election be preserved pending the proposed application to the next Legislature for the enactment of a bill providing for the recount of these ballots.

As an earnest of his offer, informally made in the Supreme Court on Wednesday, that in order that talented as well as honest ballots now in the custody of the Board of Elections might be preserved pending a recount of the mayoralty contest, Mr. Hearst, through his counsel, Curtenius J. Shearn, yesterday submitted to Judge McLean a written guarantee to bear the expense of new ballot boxes, to be used at the coming primary and regular elections, to be held in September and November respectively.

To Prove the Count.

After reviewing the results of the election held in the City of New York, November 7, 1905, for the office of Mayor, in which the vote for the three principal candidates was declared by the Board of City Canvassers to be:

William M. Ivins	167,192
George B. McClellan	228,307
William Randolph Hearst	224,925

Mr. Hearst tells of the court proceedings he says is judicially ascertained whether the votes cast at the election had been truly counted and declared.

Mr. Hearst announces his intention to apply to the Legislature of the State of New York, which will assemble on January 1, 1907, for the enactment of a bill providing for the recount of the ballots, and upon this request to appeal to the Attorney-General of the State of New York for leave to bring an action for a judgment of ouster against said George B. McClellan. He declares that these ballots are needed as evidence in a contest now pending in the Board of Aldermen of the city of New York.

Mr. Hearst's Offer.

The formal offer made by Mr. Hearst follows:

"To preserve inviolate the said ballots cast at said election for Mayor, held in the city of New York on November 7, 1905, to guard against any of said ballots from the ballot boxes in which they are now contained, and to continue in force the said order of April 20, 1906, I, William Randolph Hearst, hereby offer to the officials charged by the election laws of the State of New York with the duty of furnishing to the city of New York ballot boxes necessary for the lawful conduct of elections therein, to provide at my own expense and without cost to said city of New York 1,948 ballot boxes, to be constructed in the manner required by law, and to deliver the same to said officials in the said city before to be agreed upon, and I further offer to provide a place in which to store said ballot boxes containing the ballots cast at said election of November 7, 1905, and to bear the expense of their storage until the question whether said said ballots have been truly counted and declared has been finally settled."

STANDARD OIL GRAB FOUGHT IN PORTLAND

Citizens' Mass Meeting to Protest Against Proposal of Street Lighting Merger.

PORTLAND, Me., July 27.—Determined to prevent the Standard Oil from completing its chain of monopolies in the electric light and power business in Maine by merging the Consolidated Electric Light Company and the Portland Lighting and Power Company, the citizens will hold a mass meeting next Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the common council rooms.

The leader in the movement, Major Edward W. Thaxter, who knows the inner workings of the combine from being a director of the last-named lighting company, has been gathering evidence that promises to be of a startling nature. He has presented this to the delegates who comprise the committee appointed by Mayor Clifford to investigate the gas merger. Major Thaxter has stated that the combination of the two companies is contrary to public policy and the rights of the citizens, and that its purpose is to break down competition and establish a monopoly of public and private lighting.

There is no doubt that if the merger is carried through the rates of light and power will be greatly advanced. The public will be compelled to pay nearly double the amount they now pay under competitive conditions for their light, and if the monopoly is obtained they will be at the mercy of Standard Oil, which is making a wholesale grab for this enterprise in Maine.

Reports from other towns show that the Standard Oil is forging ahead and obtaining several concessions. It is buying up all the small electric light companies and few remain under private control. These will be subsequently obtained and the entire business in Maine will be in the grasp of the trust.

After Maine has been bound by the monopoly the Standard Oil will do likewise in New Hampshire and Vermont, and the ax trust will own the entire electric and power business in three States. Its methods mined stand may be followed by other cities, and the trust may fight against several obstacles in its new campaign.

CLEAR UNION MEN OF CHARGE

NEW YORK, July 27. That the death of Michael Butler, a special policeman at the New Plaza Hotel, was the result of an accident and that the seven members of the Housesmiths and Bridgemen's Union who were arrested were not to blame in any way for his death, was the verdict of the coroner's jury yesterday.

Four of the men were at once re-arrested, charged with having assaulted William O'Toole, also a special policeman on the building, on the day that Butler met his death.

SOUTH BOSTON PARTY TO GO TO 'JAPAN BY TROLLEY'

GIRL MEMBERS OF SOUTH BOSTON CATHOLIC CLUB RECEPTION COMMITTEE.

Members of the South Boston Catholic Club take a trolley trip to Japan to-night.

At 8 o'clock special cars leave the corner of C street and Broadway and whirl about the city proper and then to Waterfront. The return trip ends at the clubhouse, where an elaborate entertainment has been arranged.

The lawn is to be decorated with Japanese lanterns and the fair waitresses will don costumes of the Mikado's empire. The effect will be as Japanese as possible.

In charge of the trolley trip is the following committee: Arthur J. Leary, chairman; Albert Dockrell, Dennis J. Collins, Timothy Shea, Thomas Langille, C. Foster Sawyer, Dennis J. Bowman, Daniel R. Dooley, Daniel Farrell, Thomas J. Sweeney, Michael J. Comeo, Frank Davis, James Furlong, Emmet Callahan, William Anderson, John Ring and George Buchanan.

The reception committee consists of James F. Powers, chairman; Edward T. C. Noonan, Edward S. Stevens, James S. McKenna, John J. Daly, James Moriarty, George F. O'Brien, assisted by Miss Mae Murray, Miss Nellie Anderson, Miss Lillian McKay, Miss Gertrude Leary, Miss Laura Pinkham, Miss Mary Reid, Miss Rita Foye, Miss Nellie Wilson, Miss Susan Gallagher, Miss Mae Brown, Miss Amy Harris, Miss May Murphy, Miss Minnie Sullivan, Miss Lillian Ambrose, Miss Mae Urquhart, Miss Alice King, Miss May Devlin, Miss Lina Harrington and Miss Ethel Devlin.

It is expected that several hundred guests will grace the members of the club.

Corwin also denied that he had recently been acting as a bouncer in a dance hall at Coney Island.

APPEALS FOR AID TO SAVE TUCKER HOME

Rev. Mr. Winslow Issues Letter Asking Help to Clear Mortgage.

ABOUT $2,000 IS NEEDED

Rev. William Copley Winslow, friend of Charles L. Tucker to the last, is said actively engaged in endeavoring to raise money to clear the home of the parents of the man electrocuted for the murder of Miss Page. He sends the following letter to the BOSTON AMERICAN, explaining publicly:

Editor BOSTON AMERICAN

The recent statement in two of the papers that an effort would be made by me to raise $2,000 for paying off the mortgage upon the home in Auburndale owned by the parents of the late Charles L. Tucker has already caused nearly seventy responses in money, but on all sides are so many inquiries for information about the subject that I will explain the situation to an interested public and beg respectfully for its aid in so humane and charitable an object.

How House Was Bought.

Some years ago Mr. and Mrs. Tucker bought a small house in Auburndale, valued at about $3,000, on which was a mortgage of $2,000. They made the purchase with the definite understanding that their two sons would aid in supporting the home and thus, directly or indirectly, in reducing the mortgage. We all know what has happened.

So broken in health is the father that he struggles to do even partially what is necessary for the mere support, and in his sad story he is liable to be taken down any day with a permanent illness.

Even if she had the strength to go out to labor, Mrs. Tucker could not, for all her time and strength belong to her invalid husband. The remaining son, a brakeman on the railroad, has his own family to provide for, but he will make any sacrifice possible for this purpose. The savings, instead of going towards the mortgage, have all been used for their support and for special but necessary expenses.

Earnest Appeal for Aid.

A great burden will be lifted from the life of these afflicted parents if the mortgage can be paid off. I earnestly appeal to our humane and philanthropic public to contribute, no matter how small the sum.

In my absence for the Summer at Barnstable, Cape Cod, I have arranged that all letters mailed to Rev. W. C. Winslow, No. 30 Tremont street, Boston, will receive due attention, and all subscriptions will be recorded and acknowledged. All are welcome to call for information or to see the deed.

WILLIAM COPLEY WINSLOW.

Barnstable, Mass.

CORWIN SAYS MAN IN CASE IS "ORDINARY"

NEW YORK, July 27.—Halsey Corwin, from whose wife $250,000 worth of jewels were stolen, declares that he is preparing to sue for divorce, but that "the man in the case is a very ordinary sort of person."

Corwin also denied that he had recently been acting as a bouncer in a dance hall at Coney Island.

BOSTON MEN REJOICE OVER IRISH VICTORY

Election of East Tyrone Nationalist Candidate Brings Congratulations.

MAJORITY OF 19 VOTES

Boston friends of the Irish National cause are rejoicing over the news from East Tyrone, Ireland, where T. M. Kettle, the Nationalist candidate, was elected to Parliament by a large majority of nineteen votes. The following messages have been received from Boston men to Mr. Kettle.

Kettle, M. P., Dublin:

"Congratulations to you, to East Tyrone and Ireland on your splendid victory. The pass to the north has been held, not for the first time, by the men of O'Neill's own. God bless them, and God save Ireland.

"JOHN O'CALLAGHAN, Secretary."

Kettle, M. P., Dublin:

"Heartiest congratulations on your magnificent victory. God bless the noble men of Tyrone, ever faithful to the old land and her cause. Victory will go down in history. God save Ireland.

"MICHAEL MAYNES, Tyrone man."

The following message was sent by natives of Tyrone now resident of Boston:

Kettle, M. P., Tyrone:

"Tyrone men in Boston and throughout United States feel enthusiastically jubilant over glorious victory for you in East Tyrone. Thank God Tyrone stands true to old Ireland and her cause. The county of the O'Neills should go down in history as striking grand blow in important crisis for old land. God save Ireland.

"MICHAEL MAYNES,
"PATRICK TIGHE,
"CHARLES MAYNES,
"JOHN —,
"MICHAEL A. TOLAND,
"ANDREW TIGHE,
"JOHN WOODS."

$25,000 STOPS WIDOW'S SUIT

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 27.—Avoiding the publicity and scandal of what promised to be one of the most sensational breach of promise suits heard for years in the local courts, Attorney Gibson B. Packer, a prominent lawyer, has settled out of court the suit filed against him by Mrs. Mary L. Vetter, a pretty young widow.

An announcement to this effect was made yesterday morning by Attorney Rogers McCreery, who represented Mrs. Vetter in the suit. Mrs. Vetter had instituted suit for $50,000 damages for alleged breach of promise. It is understood that she received $25,000.

Mrs. Vetter alleged that she became acquainted with Mr. Packer about eight years ago. She said she frequently accompanied him on business trips East. It was one of these trips to Philadelphia, she alleged, that the proposal of marriage was made.

The only form of food made from wheat that is all nutriment is the soda cracker, and yet—the only soda cracker of which this is really true is

Uneeda Biscuit

The only soda cracker scientifically baked.
The only soda cracker effectually protected.
The only soda cracker ever fresh, crisp and clean.
The only soda cracker good at all times.

5¢ In a dust tight, moisture proof package.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

AMUSEMENTS.

REDSKINS—COWBOYS
Are a Picturesque Feature of Wonderland
REVERE BEACH,
So, too, are the "Cow Girls," in their short skirts, leather leggings and sombreros. All bands there are equally fearless, danger-loving and intrepid. They ride bareback, side-saddle and astride, do amazing feats of equestrianism, rifle firing, lassoing and broncho-busting, for winning thereby an unrivaled example of the every day life of the pioneers and ranchmen, Indian braves, squaws and their ilk on our Western borders.
See Wonderland's Other Big Shows
Don't miss the BALLOON ASCENSION Today and Tomorrow at 5 o'clock. You will find it worth your while. It is the most sensational, the most perilous and the most thrilling of all Wonderland's free shows. They also include the SALZA CADET BAND CONCERTS, OPEN AIR CIRCUS, GRAND PARADE of all the shows and bands and the FEARLESS CHEMICAL ILLUMINATIONS.
GATES OPEN AT 12. BRING THE CHILDREN
10c—ADMISSION—10c

Trolley Information
We Can Help You Plan
Vacation Trips
Come and see us or write for plans
Passenger Department
Boston & Northern and Old Colony St. Ry. Co.'s
309 Washington St.
Tel. Main 4553

Castle Sq.
Down-Town Office, 21 Winter St.
EVES. at 8, WED and SAT. at 2
COUNOD'S GRAND OPERA
Faust
Prices 15c, 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.
July 30—Gilbert and Sullivan's
THE PIRATES OF PENZANCE.

NATIONAL LEAGUE
Columbus Ave.
TO-DAY AT 3:30
CHICAGO

SEE THE NAVAL Manoeuvres
By Trolley to Gloucester and Around Cape Ann
$1 For the Round Trip. Tickets on sale at the office of the Boston & Northern St. Ry. Co., 309 Washington St.

When You Visit
Salem, the
HOME of the WITCHES
Take the New Trolley Air Line. Cars leave Scollay Square at 5 minutes before and 33 minutes after the hour.

For the Fishing Grounds
STEAMER PHILADELPHIA
Leaves North Side of Central Wharf, Foot of State st., daily and Sunday at 10 a. m. Lines, bait and shoveler free. Fare $1.50. Price of food and liquor cost extra. Music during season.
BASS POINT
FAST STEAMERS leave Boston for Bass Point and Nahant at 9:30, 11:00 a. m., 1:00, 2:30, 4:15, 5:15, 7:00, 9:00 P. M.
Also direct boat Nahant to Bass Point only.
Fare to adults 25c, children 15c. Special rates to parties. Take elevated trains and Nos. Ferry cars to Battery st., Lincoln wharf, Tel. 1293-1 Richmond.
H. W. BARBOUR, Manager.

NORUMBEGA PARK
Opens Out 9 A. M. | 5 Minutes to Subscribers On-the-Charles
Grand Concert Every Afternoon and Evening
OPEN-AIR THEATRE
OPERA, MUSICAL COMEDY, VAUDEVILLE
Afternoon 2:30; Evenings 8:15.
Follow the Flag Marked (N)
Weekly Souvenir Booklet

BOWDOIN SQUARE THEATRE
Every Afternoon at 2. Every Evening at 8.
ADRIFT IN THE WORLD
Any Seat in the House 25c.
Next Week—THE MINISTER'S DAUGHTER.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE BOAT RIDE DOWN
10 Cents Admits to a Whole Day's Fun at to Nantasket through picturesque Boston Harbor is a pleasant prelude to a day's outing at Greater Paragon Park. Boats leave Rowe's Wharf at 20 minutes past the hour except during rush hours, when they go every 30 minutes. No crowding, no overheating—everything pleasant. A million marvels, including the Bostock Animal show at PARAGON
PARK, NANTASKET

From Gay Head to Brooklyn Bridge
BY DAYLIGHT
"All the Way by Water"
Boston to New York
VIA
JOY LINE
A 24-Hour Ocean Trip
Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday at 5 p. m.
FIRST—$2.25—CLASS
Steamers via Providence Every Weekday
Ask for Booklet. Ticket office, 214 Washington Street. Phone Main 2324

Don't Forget That One of the Best Summer Shows of the Season is on at KEITH'S
This Week Something in the Bill to Interest and Amuse All Tastes. Bring Your Visiting Friend to "the model playhouse of the Country."

GLOUCESTER AND CAPE ANN
Round trip, 75c. Central Wharf, foot State st. Elevated trains, week days, 10 A. M., 2 P. M.; leave Gloucester, 2:15 P. M. Sundays, leave Boston 10:15 A. M.; leave Gloucester, 2 P. M.
BOSTON & GLOUCESTER S. B. CO.
FOR THE FISHING GROUNDS
$150.00 IN GOLD PRIZES
Steamer King Philip leaves Commercial Wharf Daily and Sunday at 10 o'clock. Fare One Dollar. Lines, Bait, Chowder Free.

The COOL TREMONT
OPENS TIME TONIGHT.
HENRY W. SAVAGE Offers
HARRY BULGER
In the Song Show Hit of the Year
THE MAN FROM NOW
Seats Four Weeks in Advance.
Prices $1.50. Mat. Tomorrow at 2.

$1.00 ROUND TRIP BY TROLLEY $1.00
BOSTON TO PLYMOUTH
ONE WAY 50 CENTS.
Tickets on sale at office of the Passenger Department, B. & N. and O. C. St. Ry. Cos., 309 Washington St.

POPULAR ROUTE—BOSTON TO
BASS POINT
—VIA—
LYNN
Boston to Lynn via Boston, Revere Beach & Lynn R. R.; Lynn to Bass Point via Lynn Steamboat Co. Trains to Lynn every 10 minutes from Scollay Square to Revere Beach, and every 20 minutes to Lynn. Round trip, Boston to Point only 20 cts.

GLOBE DAILY 2 and 8 P. M. Phone Oxford 740.
JOHN CRAIG CO. IN PRINCE KARL
Professional Matinee Today | Next Week, A Scrap of Paper

2.25 FIRST CLASS
BOSTON TO NEW YORK
Every Week Day via Providence
JOY LINE
Direct Steamer Tu., Th. & Sat.
Ticket Office, 214 Washington St. Phone Main 2324

PALACE
French Folly Burlesquers
Prices 10 to 50c.

FREE—TO WANT ADVERTISERS—FREE

A FULL DINNER SET OF 35 PIECES IN 12 WEEKS

CONSISTING OF

Cups	6 pieces	Bread and Butter Plates	6 pieces	Creamer	1 piece
Saucers	6 pieces	Sauce Dishes	6 pieces	Platter	1 piece
Dinner Plates	6 pieces	Sugar	2 pieces	Vegetable Dish	1 piece

35 pieces

Our 35-piece Dinner Set premiums will be given three pieces each week for eleven weeks and two pieces the twelfth week, completing the set in twelve weeks. The premium each week will be of the same value as our REGULAR WEEKLY PREMIUMS. The first three pieces of the set will be given to each person bringing one or more ads. of 3 lines or more (except Situations or Barter and Exchange) to the office 80 Summer St., with cash for the

SUNDAY AMERICAN, JULY 29

WHOLE WORLD OF SPORTS COVERED FOR THE BOSTON AMERICAN BY ITS CORPS OF EXPERTS

YOUNG CY TACKLES THE CUBS

CARL LUNDGREN, CUB PITCHER

The windy city twirler will probably face the Tenney company to-morrow. He is one of the four best in the National league.

GLIDDEN TOURISTS REST AT RANGELEY BEFORE LAST RUN

BY. J. C. KERRISON.

THE RANGELEY LAKE HOUSE, Rangeley, Me., July 27.—The trip of yesterday from Waterville to this city, a distance of 105 miles, resulted in the loss of but one man from the honor list in the Glidden tour. The unfortunate one was N. H. Van Sicklen whose Apperson car had two punctures in short control, netting him a loss of eleven points. This is generally regretted by the tourists as this was considered as the one party which most close-

It is responded to the conditions of entry the speed of gifts of the ribbon. The additional controls were placed in the afternoon yesterday and after his mishaps of the day Van Sicklen filed a protest and requested that his points be returned to him.

The committee will consider the matter at its meeting this evening, but there is little chance of its being favorably acted upon. Sicklen is one of the most popular of the cup tourists and his misfortune is generally regretted by all. Hardly had he gone five miles when he commenced to experience tire troubles. By the time he reached Skowhegan he had used every tube that he owned, and was left stranded. He sent to Boston for more, where he secured the necessary tubes, and then came along at a rapid pace, about 11 o'clock passing Gleason, Miss Morrison and Miss Sullivan were again delayed. This time it was the stripping of the first and second gears of their car just near Solon, where they repaired until reaching the Pierce oil station, where they received a new cylinder this morning.

The troubles were experienced by Schultz, Mechuley & Richert and Van Sicklen. Strange though it may seem, all were in the right-hand front wheel. It is conjectured that this peculiar condition of affairs was due to the drivers pulling on the right to escape the ruts and ditches, which abound at the time so that it wore at the road, resulting later in a blow-out. The going yesterday was over good roads with many grades predominating. These were cliffs to say the least, being veritable mountains, and yet all cars took the same with out falling off in their records. The bridges en route were more or less demolished by the passage of the motors. This morning the main body of tourists has gone fishing in the lake. There must be remembered of a brotherhood between motorists and fishermen, that both can draw the "long bow" with gigantic success. To-morrow and see the party en route on its last run to Boston Wash., and if, upon arriving, there several machines are tied for first honors, there is little doubt but what a special tour will be arranged for Monday, just to evolve a winner.

President Harry W. Knights of the Pass. and Issues Club motored to Bar Harbor yesterday and will continue to the city this evening in the tour itself now nearly over.

The scores are:

GLIDDEN TROPHY.

Name and car.	Penalty
J. Fehr, Jr., Cleveland	0
Jos. L. Kirk, St. Thomas	0
Geo. H. Morrison, Cleveland	0
Wm. Schultz & Chas. Richert, Cleveland	0
Thomas Sullivan & Miss Sullivan, Hartford	0
W. Wright, St. Thomas	0
Jos. Fehr, St. Thomas	0
Jos. Kaiser, St. Thomas	0
Jno. Kaiser, St. Thomas	0
Geo. H. Morrison, Cleveland	0
Wm. Schultz & Chas. Richert, Cleveland	0
Chas. Rose, 24, Packard	0
W. H. Gray, Cleveland	0
W. H. Gray, Cleveland	0
H. K. Sherrill, 30, Automobile	0
H. K. Sherrill, 30, Automobile	0
M. S. Hall, 24, Locomobile	0
M. S. Hall, 24, Locomobile	0
J. H. Brooks, 35, Cadillac	11
J. H. Brooks, 35, Cadillac	11
Chas. Pond, 24, Packard	13
Chas. Pond, 24, Packard	13
J. H. Mobley, 30, Southard Pierce	20
J. H. Mobley, 30, Southard Pierce	20
R. H. Cranford, 40, Stearns-Dorracq	87
R. H. Cranford, 40, Stearns-Dorracq	87
Charles Waldgrave, 30, Peerless	136
Charles Waldgrave, 30, Peerless	136
Phillip Corbin, 24, Corbin	291
A. L. Ide, 30, Rambler	291

DEMING TROPHY.

Name and car.	Penalty
C. W. Kelsey, 30, Stoddard-Dayton	0
A. A. Post, 18, White	0
A. A. Post, 18, White	0
Watson Coleman, 18, White	151
Watson Coleman, 18, White	151
F. H. Perrish, 30, Peerless	607

GREER TO ROW FROM B. A. A.

Single Scull Champion Frank B. Greer will row for the B. A. A. in the national regatta.

It is the prevailing opinion that President Pilkington and his associates on the N. A. A. O. executive committee will accept the entry under those conditions. There will be no objection from any club. In fact, all are working hard to have Greer's entry accepted.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

HOW THE CLUBS STAND

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Chicago	56	31	.644
Pittsburg	56	31	.644
New York	52	36	.591
Philadelphia	42	48	.467
Cincinnati	41	49	.456
Brooklyn	35	52	.402
St. Louis	33	56	.371
BOSTON	30	58	.341

GAMES YESTERDAY.

At Boston, Chicago, 6; Boston, 2.
At Philadelphia, Pittsburg, 7; Phila., 2.
At Brooklyn, St. Louis, 1; Brooklyn, 4.
At New York, New York, 2; Cincinnati, 1.

GAMES SCHEDULED TO-DAY.

Chicago at Boston.
Cincinnati at New York.
St. Louis at Brooklyn.
Pittsburg at Philadelphia.

BATTING ORDER.

BOSTON.	CHICAGO.
Bridwell, ss.	Slagle, cf.
Tenney, 1b.	Sheckard, lf.
Brain, 3b.	Schulte, rf.
Bates, c.	Chance, 1b.
Howard, lf.	Steinfeldt, 3b.
Dolan, cf.	Tinker, ss.
Needham, c.	Evers, 2b.
Strobel, 2b.	Kling, c.
Young, p.	Brown, p.
Chapin.—O'Day.

There's no doubting that the Cubs look like real champions. They are sliding along and picking up the games as fast as the schedule will let them, and from all appearances will smuggle a few in this port before they dig out.

The home-coming of the Tenneyites was not marred by any brilliancy in the opening game, which the Cubs cleaned up by the score of 6 to 2.

Such an amateurish diamond display by the locals gave the contest a humorous aspect and the loose playing was the disparaging feature of the meeting.

Pfeffer started in with the same effectiveness that he showed against the Cubs the last time they were here, but his teammates would not be him with out, and he was obliged to take his medicine.

He only allowed the Cubs five hits, and after the fourth inning only one safety was recorded.

Jack Taylor, the old Cardinal pitcher simply toyed with the Hub men, and the half dozen hits were well strung out. Only Dolan and O'Neil could find him to the least extent.

Bridwell started away by doing some sensational fielding stunts, but he petered out before the ceremony was completed.

"Little Cy" Young will be on hand to manage the luck to-day and will face either Brown or Pfeister, the college twirlers.

A. A. U. MEETING TO-NIGHT.

The registration committee of the New England Association of the Amateur Athletic Union will meet in the Cambridgeport Gymnasium to-night to take action on the cases of several of the amateur athletes who were suspended for not competing in the Eagles' games, July 14, when they applied as individuals for reinstatement.

ETHEL'S PRIDE, $10,000 MARE, GOES LAME

Ethel's Pride, 2.09¾, the great trotting mare that John Shepard, dean of Boston road drivers, bought last year for $10,000, and after won several of the classic stake features, including the Transylvania at Lexington, Ky., is lame at Readville track with a bad forward tendon, and is not likely to start in a race this season.

From her début in racing circles when a filly, Ethel's Pride jumped into prominence. She was bred by William E. Spier of Glens Falls, N. Y., and foaled in 1900. Her sire was Direction, 2.05½; dam Ethel Wyn, by Harold.

At the closing out of the Spier estate she passed to Jay E. Cheney, the noted Indiana horse horseman. Last year he brought her to the Readville track to be conditioned for her engagements, and as well did she show in her initial start that Mr. Shepard was impressed with her ability and elsewhere in the stable of fast trotters.

At the close of the racing season she was shipped to Boston, and till the early part of last Spring was driven on the road by Mr. Shepard. He then decided to send her to the New York trainer, Johnny Dickerson, to be prepared for professional and auto tour duties.

Dickerson, in the latter part of June, shipped her with the balance of his string to Readville. Tuesday was very hot for work, yet trouble developed in one of her forward tendons. All the care known to the athlete was bestowed, but the tendon grew worse, and Dr. Dowd was called. Upon examination it was decided the mare must be given a rest, probably for the remainder of the year.

CUBS HAVE GOT A GOOD CATCHER IN TOM WALSH

The Chicago National League team, which has been particularly fortunate in developing young players, is said to have picked up a second "Buck" Ewing in young Tom Walsh, the new backstop, who is making his first visit to Boston. Manager Frank Chance feels highly elated over Walsh.

Last Spring when the Cubs were returning from California, Frank Selee, then the manager of the team, made dates for exhibition games. The gate receipts were small at each place, not being sufficient to pay expenses.

When Selee worked Chicago, however, he said to Jim Hart, then the president of the Cubs, "We didn't make any money in Kansas, but I think we were well repaid for one trip, because I saw a young catcher named Walsh, whom I think is destined to be another 'Buck' Ewing. The telegraph wires were kept hot in an effort to sign Walsh for the Chicago Club, but as the young backstop has one more year to play with the college team the organization has refused to play professional ball. He is a graduated ball player, however, and he is now one of the Cubs.

Walsh is said to be a wonderful thrower to bases, and a hard and timely batsman. His batting average at college this season was .391. He is the son of a wealthy railroad contractor of Davenport, Iowa, and expects to put in the next few Winters reading law. Walsh is now the same age that Frank Chance was when he joined the Chicago Club twenty years ago. He weighs 170 pounds and is an all-round athlete, and will probably catch for Chicago next Sunday at Providence.

GANS SAYS HE WILL MAKE 133

SAN FRANCISCO, July 27.—Joe Gans will fight Battling Nelson on any terms the white champion desires. Gans has just left Portland, Oregon, where he says: "I will meet Battling Nelson on any terms he will name. I don't care if the winner take all, or on a percentage basis, 60 per cent to the winner and 40 per cent to the loser. I will agree to make 133 pounds at the ringside guarantee that the fight will be strictly on the square and play hard in every way. I will agree to post $5,000 to be forfeited if I break a single condition in any way."

Gans wants to fight here and says he will arrive Monday.

BAN JOHNSON STILL TRAVELS WITH PILGRIMS

BATTING ORDER.

BOSTON	ST. LOUIS
Hayden, cf.	Mills, rf.
Parent, ss.	Jones, lb.
Stahl, rf.	Ferris, 2b.
Ferris, 2b.	Seabaugh, cf.
Dhem, 1b.	Wallace, ss.
Freeman, lb.	O'Brien, 2b.
Morgan, 3b.	Harbridge, 3b.
Armbruster, c.	Roth, c.
Pinneen, p.	Petty, p.

Special to the Boston American.

ST. LOUIS, July 27.—The disorganized Pilgrims play the Browns here to-day.

Cy Young will probably pitch for the visitors, while Barney Petty is carded by the locals.

Manager Collins of the Boston American team was spared the aggravation of seeing his team lose yesterday's game to Detroit, as he remained in the city to look at his home in Buffalo, so Chick Stahl did his usual duty here as field manager. Although Collins was absent, however, he was present when President Ban Johnson sat in the stand and saw the game over the wire, and the way the Boston club was not apparent. To the local newspaper push he seemed to regard his responsibilities in this respect very seriously.

"No," said Mr. Johnson, "Mr. Collins is not with the team. I don't know when he will join it. He is at his home in Buffalo. He may go across to St. Louis to-night for all I know."

"Is Collins's leg still bothering him," asked Secretary Navin of the local club, who was not with the Tigers on the recent trip. "Oh, I suppose so," replied Ban, with a sigh.

Just what connection there was between the Boston situation and a conference here after the game between Johnson and Cal Griffith, the former secretary of the Boston club, remains to be seen. Both parties refused to discuss the subject, and viewed the game from an isolated point of vantage, but Griffith went immediately after it was over.

The Boston players are inclined to the hearing it belief that Green was getting instructions for a campaign after players. Johnson expressed a fine opinion of Morgan, the star pitcher, who is helping out Boston. "I wish Boston had him," he said before the game. What his opinion was afterward could not be learned, but the visitors was lost largely through the errors of Morgan and the poor pitching of Petty. Nevertheless, both of them were assisted by a few breaks in the part of the usually reliable Young.

Chick Stahl had originally intended to pitch Glaiss, but when Boston opened up with two runs in the first inning and Young's record of the local club children his announcement, which had already been posted on the bulletin board, and changed the selection.

Through mistakes at third base and behind the bat Boston in the first inning by a score of 7 to 4. For the first two innings Killen was easy for the Boston batsmen. Three tallies were run up, and it looked as though the Pilgrims would have everything their own way. Then Killen settled down, and the old story with Boston, and the fans are tired of

AMERICAN LEAGUE

HOW THE CLUBS STAND.

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Philadelphia	58	33	.637
New York	56	41	.577
Cleveland	50	43	.512
Chicago	48	45	.516
Detroit	45	46	.495
St. Louis	43	47	.477
Washington	35	54	.393
BOSTON	34	58	.370

GAMES YESTERDAY.

At Detroit, Detroit, 7; Boston, 4.
At Cleveland, Cleveland, 13; Wash., 4.

GAMES SCHEDULED TO-DAY.

Boston at St. Louis.
New York at Cleveland.
Philadelphia at Detroit.
Washington at Chicago.

LEAVITT HOPES CODERO WILL BE IN FUTURITY WITH COCHATO

"The man that put in the turf column of one of the Monday morning papers how I said Cochato would surely win the American Horse Breeder Futurity at Readville next month ought to be publicly horsewhipped," declared George Leavitt to-day at the Readville track.

"I never thought of making such a remark, let alone the inane possibility of being quoted so with any truth, and I want the BOSTON AMERICAN to correct the statement made in the Washington street newspaper.

"What I have said, and I am willing to stand back of it to this, I had rather have Cochato's record than any colt entered in the Breeder stake.

"That man had no right to be as near as I ever came to making the remark credited to me. I would not even say that he would 'surely' be a starter in the race, because no one can tell what is going to happen to a horse from day to day, any more than to a man. Cochato might go to pieces on helter and throw out a curb the same as Codero did, which makes me say right now that I am not willing to call good for the Breeder stake. Anyone who knows me fully, is aware that I don't want to beat a horse that has to remain in the stable on the day of a race. I want to gain the honor by getting first to the wire.

"Tom Nelson tells me that he believes Codero will come out of the curb so as to be in condition for the Breeder stake. In that case he may be the only colt in the race to beat Cochato."

CHAMPIONS WILL THROW WEIGHTS

St. Augustine's games on the Locust street grounds, Dorchester avenue, South Boston, to-morrow afternoon give promise of rare sport to the lover of the high class track and field athletics. Over 100 athletes have entered, and many famous stars will be among the contestants.

Dennis Horgan has entered the sixteen pound shot contest, and will try to beat the world's record of 50 feet 7 inches, which he now holds. Horgan is conceded the championship of America, and will be required to defend his title against the best amateur shot putters in the country. He has been the championship at shot putting of Ireland for twelve years, England for nine, and won the American championship in 1903. His best put of the sixteen pound shot is forty-eight feet ten and one half inches.

His most formidable rival in to-morrow's games will be Matthew W. Coe, Jr., of Somerville, who is the present holder of the world's record of 50 feet nine and six inches for putting the sixteen pound shot. He is looked upon as Horgan Brothers contest with great expectancy, as he realizes a victory over Horgan will stamp him as the undisputed champion. Horgan has a victory to his credit over Coe, when he won the championship of America in 1906. Coe is a far different athlete than he was at that time, and his defeat of Ralph Rose last year has given him the confidence that is necessary in the event, and his practice work recently has been better than ever.

Ben Stephenson of Harvard, the winner of the shot put at this year's Intercollegiate, is one of the best all round athletes in the country. He does not shine in practice, but generally gets there when the crisis comes, and is liable to prove a surprise Saturday.

In the one mile run thirty-five of the best distance runners in the country are entered. James Sullivan, the Irish A. C. crack of New York, is on scratch, and E. P. Carr has been entered by the Xavier of New York. In this event all the distance runners of note in New England will strive to keep the prizes from the New Yorkers.

George T. Bonhag, New York Irish A. C., is the star in the two mile run. Those who have been fortunate enough to see him win the Boston A. A. indoor meet the past two years agree that he is the best man in America at two miles. Carr of the Xaviers is also entered in the 880 yard run. Eleven specialists at this distance will make hot work of it for this distance for whoever wins it.

Paul Pilgrim, New York A. C., is scratch man in the quarter-mile run. His work at Athens stamps him as the best man in the world at this event. He is one of the most graceful runners in the country. There are three high-class entries for this race. Bobby Leavitt, the Boston

HARVARD CREW OFF FOR EUROPE

NEW YORK, July 27.—The Harvard crew, which is to row Cambridge on September 8, sailed this morning on the White Star line steamship Cedric. The personnel of the crew who sailed are Captain and Stroke Harry Worcester Smith, Francis M. Higgins, forward, No. 1, Robert M. Tappan, No. 2, Gordon G. Gibson, No. 3, Allan Balch Arnold, Jr., No. 6, Robert L. Nelson, No. 5, Percy Haughton, Jr., No. 4, and Coxswain Roger A. Derby. Mr. Haughton, already in Europe, and No. 2, Charles Morgan, will sail for John Bull's shores a week or ten days. Morgan will arrive in time to take up practice in the middle of August.

The crew will be met by President Gold smith of the Cambridge Boat Club, and they will begin practice early in August. The race will be one of the regular university course from Putney to Mortlake.

Coach Wray said that the men were in fit condition, and that one week's work of practice will be begun as soon as possible. He, like the others, is confident of success. The two shells which Harvard will use were shipped by steamship from Boston on Wednesday.

HONEST WHISKEY
$2 PER GALLON
Right from the distillery in oak-lined kits, brought low, cold low. It makes friends for the house. No charge for jug and box; post up to bottles if you want it.
Send for price list.
Bottle of wine with each order this week.
Mail and express orders promptly filled.
LOS ANGELES CO.
451 and 453 Summer St., Boston.

LEWIS WILL FIGHT SAYERS IN THE WEST

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., July 27.—Harry Lewis of Philadelphia and Maurice Sayers of Milwaukee will furnish the next battle in this city before the Olympic Athletic Club. The date has been set for August 9.

Sayers is recognized as the best 133 pound man in the West and has scored victories over men like Charley Neary and other fighters of his class. He is a bigger and rangier fellow than Lewis, but local sports believe that he lacks the Philadelphian's punch. Sayers's best chance seems to be to stay the ten rounds scheduled and get the decision on points, but as Lewis is also wonderfully fast and clever, a lightning battle is expected if Sayers adopts these tactics.

The men will weigh in at 133 pounds on the afternoon of the fight. As Lewis and 130 here for Presidentast, he will be well within the scale, but Sayers is expected to have some trouble in getting down to weight. The men will fight for a guaranteed purse of $1,200, of which the winner will take $1,000.

BEMIS'S WIFE IS DYING

CLEVELAND, July 27.—Harry Bemis did not witness the grand victory of his team mates yesterday afternoon. While he is suffering from a spiked foot and a bad case of charley-horse, his wife is dangerously ill in the East End, and only faint hopes are held out for her recovery. It was her severe illness that kept him away from the game yesterday. The Bemis home is in Marlboro, Mass.

BASEBALL MONOPOLY PLANS TO CORNER GAME

The advance story of a gigantic baseball trust that is said to need only the sanction of the White Sox, to make it an operative fact, has come to light.

President Ban Johnson of the American League is said to have worked on the scheme for two years, with success crowning his efforts, except in the case of Comiskey, who, like the man from Kentucky, must have it shot into him before he will credit and indorse its existence.

The idea, from all information that can be gleaned on the subject, is to bring National and American Leagues up within all papers, present and future, practically will be controlled by these two organizations.

My control of players of the future is meant that all minor league stars are to be watched in their development and when they are ripe for picking will be assigned to the teams of either league that are most in need of their services. Clubs having surplus players who would strengthen any of the other teams will be required to hand them over to the needy aggregation. In this way it is expected that the teams will be more nearly equalized, and better brand of baseball than now is offered will necessarily following.

Of course, the cities that develop the largest attendance will be given a slight advantage when it comes to the distribution of players, but efforts will be made to have the teams of as near equal strength as is consistent with good business returns. Another feature of this trust scheme will be the equalizing of salaries. There will be few $5,000 salaries paid pitchers, or $4,000 to ordinary outfielders.

MORAN READY FOR HARD RACE

Jimmy Moran, taking advantage of the postponement of the 25-mile bike race at the Revere track till to-morrow night has been doing some hard work on the track, as he allows Will Stinson of Cambridge and John Bedell of New York two laps start and will have a job on his hands to beat them. The fans will have an extra incentive for attending the race as the management of the track has offered $20 in gold to the one who guesses the nearest correct number of paid admissions to the races. This does not include complimentaries and the prizes will be presented on the track at the conclusion of the paged race.

The five-mile and mile handicap for professional sprinters will furnish a lot of high class sport for the lovers of fast pedaling.

SEMI-FINALS AT LONGWOOD

The feature event in the tennis tourney at the Longwood Cricket Club yesterday was the match between E. B. Dewhurst and Raymond D. Little in the open singles, Dewhurst winning, 6—3, 4—6, 3—6, 6—3, 6—3.

Dewhurst's win over Little makes him one of the semi-finalists for first honors.

The Clothier-Bull match also drew a large gallery, and though it was short, only going three sets, it was keenly contested throughout, the score, 6—2, 6—2, 6—4, being in Clothier's favor.

In the third round of the Eastern double championship, Hackett and Alexander defeated the Lovering brothers in a three-set match, 6—2, 6—2, 6—3.

It is thought that Hackett and Alexander will be the pair to meet Clothier and Larned in the finals for the doubles championship.

The semi-finals in the singles will be played to-day, with Clothier, Dewhurst, Bair and Anderson as competitors.

MATINEE TO-MORROW AT FRANKLIN FIELD

From the entries received by the racing committee for the matinee to-morrow at Franklin Field, the members of the Dorchester Driving Club are retaining their interest in the sport despite the vacation season is here.

It ought well be worth the trip just to see Bondo and Manila Boy fight it out. The owners of both of the speedy horses claim to be the fastest horses, and in line for the championship of the club.

The following events are scheduled in dications point to the wheels having plenty to do in order to bend the sun beams of their respective events. Following are the entries:

Class A. Bondo, b. g., S. Walter Sias, Stanislaus; Manila Boy, b. g., A. H. Spaulding.

Class B.—George L., gr. m., Arcadine stables; Della Fox, b. m., George W. Peterson.

Class C.—George S., b. g., W. F. Bostelle, Boston.

Class D.—Wilhelmina, br. g., A. J. Lezz, Robert E., g. g., Mr. Morton, Grafton; Lucy Gardner, b. g., Morton street stables.

Class E.—Elsie Mack, br. m., R. C. Richardson, Abington; Dr. Mack, b. g., Mr. Mahoney.

Class F.—Sophie, b. g., E. S. Harris, Tribune, b. g., Chas. G. W. Wyman; Sophie, b. g., H. R. Barry; Harold, g. g., Mr. Sherrill.

Class H.—Belle Wilkes, b. m., Mr. Mahoney; Forrest Belle, b. m., W. L. Robbins.

MEN OF ALL AGES

who seek to preserve or regain desired manly strength should remember that the best is generally the cheapest. If offer

Years of experience.
The quickest cure.
Expert consulting staff.
Quick, effective treatment.
A responsible guarantee.
Hours 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. 218 Tremont St.
DR. WEINSTEIN

ELECTRO-VIGOR.
The only dry cell body battery in the world. Always active. No repairs or adds. Cures Weak Men, Weak Backs, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Nervousness, Varicocele, Lame Muscles, Lame Joints.
Write for free illustrated book, sealed from observation by mailing.
DR. S. J. HALL, 127 W. 42d St., New York.

Dr. Hallock's
Remedies Cure to Stay Cured
Diseases of Men

Dr. Hallock's Electric Pills, a positive cure for nervousness, lost vitality, impotency, varicocele, stricture, all diseases of the sexual organs, kidneys and bladder, caused by overwork or other excesses, loss of power, lame back, rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys and bladder, nervousness, lack of energy, and all weaknesses of men. Price, $5 a box; 3 boxes for 10 cents to pay postage.

Dr. Hallock's C. Capsules for Bladder Troubles. Quickly, positively, cure gleets, stricture, inflammation, irritation, kidney and bladder troubles, etc. Price, $1 a box; 3 boxes for $2.50.

All acute and chronic private diseases and weaknesses of men cured. Call or write. Consultation free. Book on diseases of men, sent free. Office hours, daily, 9 to 5; Sundays 10 to 1.

DR. HALLOCK CO.
114 Court St., Boston, Mass.
Between Bowdoin Sq. and Sudbury St., 85 years at the same place. Oldest in the country.

MEN consult free by mail or office, 20 years' experience. Cure guaranteed. Rare Blood Poison, Stricture, Varicocele, Nervousness, Lost vigor restored. Kidney, bladder, skin, weakness. Piles, no knife. Other private, reliable medicines for sale. Call or write.
BOSTON MEDICAL INSTITUTE, 614 Court St., Sudbury Sq. Bos. 550, Bos. 124.

Boston American Daily Home Magazine

Ella Wheeler Wilcox

This Purity Farm School Is a Step in the Right Direction Toward the Education of the Young

By Ella Wheeler Wilcox

Copyright, 1910, by American-Journal-Examiner

THERE is little use, perhaps, of talking to boys about the pernicious results of cigarette smoking when they see the practice indulged in by their fathers, brothers and mothers.

Nevertheless, here are a few facts offered by a prominent club woman of Los Angeles, Cal., who has studied the question carefully:

I have noticed that many of the boys, big and little, who have been brought into the juvenile court since that tribunal was established for the correction of young offenders, told the Judge that they smoked cigarettes. When they didn't admit as much the probation officer often volunteered a statement to that effect.

Many a career of crime began with the lighting of the first cigarette by a boy who might easily have been influenced for good. Cigarettes affect boys in drink acts on men. And the majority of boys begin smoking for the same reason that most men begin drinking. They see others do it and they think it is manly.

Almost every week cases come up of little boys breaking into grocery or drug stores. In court it comes out that they stole candy perhaps, maybe cookies, but it is almost always the case that they also took tobacco.

Once formed the appetite for tobacco feeds itself upon a boy until he is finally a slave, and he will go to almost any extreme to secure the poisonous weed.

Strength to Refuse

MOTHERS would do well to teach their boys that it is a proof of manliness to show strength to refuse a cigarette when other boys are smoking.

"Any lustier can smoke; and every boy can be man enough to refuse," was the answer of one brave boy when his companions laughed at his refusal to join them.

That would be a good motto for an anti-cigarette club of boys to adopt.

Another thing to tell a boy is this: Cigarette smoking arrests the development of boys under sixteen, mentally, physically, morally, or all three.

If a young man is determined to smoke let him at least get his growth first.

It is gratifying to know that a school is being established along lines suggested for many years in this column.

A School of Sex

HERE is a letter which explains itself:

Dear Madam—I have read with interest your article on prenatal influence. I desire to call your attention to a school I am starting near Guthrie, O. It is a farm, or ranch, to press purpose of teaching these things.

Dr George Barker Holden says with emphasis: "The need of a dependable grappling with this matter is to-day keenly felt among educators, and they also feel the need of only trust and profession in dealing practically and efficiently with it. . . . The only such school in Connecticut that makes a specialty of definite instruction in this question finds no difficulty in getting students at $1,000 per year.

"I suggest the organization of a national association of educators and physicians of those objects shall be to devise an approved adequate graded course of study for the use of the public high schools and colleges, and to promote the general introduction of the same, and that our schools of pedagogy prepare special teachers for this work."

Dr. La Forte, lecturer on physiological pedagogics for New York University has a strong article on the teaching of sex knowledge, entitled "School Hygiene and the Growing Child."

The moral condition of most of our State schools is something simply frightful. While the conditions that obtain in many of our colleges are alarming, millions of homes are more or less strangers to a perfect understanding of this subject. We believe the signs of the times indicate that such teachings along this line will be taken up in all our schools.

This experiment here in this home has passed successfully along that line. Quite a number of other schools are doing the same. We therefore present this view to all and urge them with us that this subject should be introduced into the schools to help us.

CHARLES S. MITCHELL,
Superintendent
Marionville, Mo.

Higher Humanity

ALL this is excellent, and shows the signs of the times, pointing to a higher humanity after a few generations.

The public schools and all private schools, and all country schools, are engendering evil along with good. Children are taught everything save the most vital truths of life during school hours, and there is no guidance or protection given them out of school hours.

Innocent and perverted are thrown side by side, and sacred facts are made known to pure young minds in the guise of obscenity and depravity.

Mothers and fathers are blind and stupid on these subjects, and through conceit and vanity imagine their children beyond and above any danger of contamination. Yet the contamination takes place all the same.

It is the business of instructors to provide the common sense teaching which parents so wofully lack in the training of the young.

But the work attempted by Mr. Mitchell in his Purity Farm School at Marionville needs to be conducted with great wisdom and discretion.

Many books written with a view to guiding the young away from unhealthful thoughts only serve to guide toward them, and many instructors who seek to allay precocious curiosity produce it by lack of right method.

Children should be taught that we are one with nature, one with mother earth. And that as plants spring forth, so does man, and that God, the Source and the Cause, lies back of everything, and that all his methods are beautiful, sacred and holy.

All success to the Marionville Purity Farm School.

TO CAN PEACHES

PARE and halve the peaches; pack them

In the tin cans as close as they can possibly be put; make a syrup of six pounds of sugar to one gallon of cold water; let this stand until well dissolved; then pour the cold syrup over the peaches until the cans are even full, after which solder perfectly tight, place the cans in a boiler, cover well with cold water.

Set it on the fire and let the water boil five minutes; then take the cans out and turn them upside down. One gallon of syrup will do one dozen cans.

THIS QUEER HAT WAS CALLED THE HENNIN

Beatrice Fairfax Says Women Are Not Half So Foolish as They Used to Be, and Comments On

ODD HEADDRESSES WORN BY WOMEN

If the Headgear of To-day Seems to Be Grotesque, What Do You Think of Styles of the Olden Days?

BY BEATRICE FAIRFAX

SOFFERS (of the sterner sex, needless to say) declare that never have women worn such grotesque headgear as at present. Therein, my dear gentlemen, you make a great mistake for, comparatively speaking, we are perfect miracles of conservatism in the headdress line.

It's a queer thing, but for generations we have taken the most intense interest in the ways in which women do their hair.

Away back in the days of Ovid, and that, as any schoolboy can testify, is a lot about beauty, and those are two very far indeed, the men talked and wrote about and advised women how to dress their hair becomingly.

Ovid himself had a great deal to say on the subject, and his words of wisdom rise down through the centuries and for twelve centuries women have adopted some extraordinary styles.

Although I much regret to acknowledge such foolishness in my own sex, they have at times suffered tortures in order to be fashionable.

And oh, the painting and the powdering and the hair dyeing. It was shocking, perfectly shocking.

And all of this, mind you, to find favor in the fickle eye of man.

For human nature does not vary much, and the gentleman of the eleventh century was quite as susceptible to the beauty as his descendants of the twentieth.

The modern woman is infinitely wiser than her ancestress when it comes to dressing her hair.

The only real foolish style she has been guilty of has been the pompadour, and certainly she has done herself proud on that.

We have very few names for our styles—in fact, I think "Pompadour" and "Psyche knot" almost exhaust our forms.

But our ancestresses had a list as long as your arm to choose from, and such grand sounding names at that.

There was the "tholia," the "tericulum," the "cresline," which sounds like something to eat; the "reticulle" and a dozen others equally fine and unpronounceable.

At one short stage of the game the headdresses were so high that the ladies had to have holes cut in the tops of their Sedan chairs and carriages in order to enter.

And yet men have the effrontery to say that the women of to-day are extreme in their headgear.

If some of these gentlemen will read the August Cosmopolitan they will see how moderate the modern woman is.

An article written by Octave Uzanne and translated by Lady Mary Loyd describes in detail some of the truly remarkable styles.

It quotes Ovid's wise advice, and if you take my advice, girls, you will study old Ovid's words of wisdom and apply them to your own individuality.

It gives a most interesting description of the ancient patrician lady at her toilet.

And it tells of more styles of hairdressing than you ever would have dreamed existed.

Read it and then make your own friends read it, and then study them if they will ever again dare to say that modern women do vain or foolish over her hairs or her way of dressing her hair.

She is simply one monumental pillar of common sense when you compare her in that respect to her great-great-grandmother.

The pictures here shown are reproduced by the courtesy of the Cosmopolitan and will give you some idea of the grotesque modes of a century or so ago.

OPERA HEADDRESS OF A CENTURY AGO

Five True and Tried Recipes for Cooling Drinks in Hot Weather

DURING the Summer months an ounce caution should be used in the use of drinks as in the choice of a reasonable diet. Above all, alcoholic drinks should be altogether abjured.

Here are six recipes for cooling and healthful hot weather drinks, all of which may easily be made at home:

STRAWBERRY SHERBET

TAKE fourteen ounces of picked strawberries, crush them in a mortar, then add to them a quart of water; pour this into a basin, with a lemon sliced, and a teaspoonful of orange-flower water; let remain for two or three hours.

Put eighteen ounces of sugar into an other basin, cover it with a cloth, through which pour the strawberry juice. After as much has run through as will, gather up the cloth, and squeeze out as much juice as possible from it. When the sugar is all dissolved, strain it again; and the vessel containing it on ice until ready to serve.

RASPBERRY VINEGAR

TO four quarts of red raspberries put enough vinegar to cover and let them stand twenty-four hours; scald and strain it, add a pound of sugar to one pint of juice, boil it twenty minutes and bottle it is then ready for use. When required for use, put a tablespoonful to one glass of water and a great deal of ice; it is much relished by the sick. Very nice.

LEMON SODA

THE juice of one lemon, a tumblerful of cold water, pounded sugar to taste, half a small teaspoonful of carbonate of soda. Squeeze the juice from the lemon, strain, and add it to the water, with sufficient pounded sugar to sweeten the whole well. When well mixed, put in the soda, stir well and drink while the mixture is in an effervescent state.

GINGER BEER

PUT into a kettle two ounces of powdered ginger root (or more if it is not very strong), half an ounce of cream of tartar, two large lemons, cut in slices, two pounds of broken loaf sugar and two gallons of boil boiling water. Simmer them over a slow fire for half an hour.

When the liquid is nearly cold, stir into it a large tablespoonful of the best yeast. After this has fermented, which will be in about twenty-four hours, bottle for use.

ICED TEA

PREPARE tea in the morning, making it stronger and sweeter than usual; strain and pour into a stone jug or glass bottle, and set aside in the ice-chest until ready to use. Drink from goblets without cream. Serve ice-locked in small pieces on a plate or finely garnished with well-washed grape leaves.

Iced tea may be prepared from either green or black alone, but it is considered an improvement to mix the two. You may like that for iced tea (or that left in the teapot after a meal), with sugar to taste, a slice or two of lemon, a little of the juice and some pieces of cracked ice, makes a delightful drink.

Serve in glasses

"SHADOWS OF NEW YORK"

By Sidney Warwick

CHAPTER LXXVII.—Continued

Copyright, 1910, by American-Journal-Examiner

THE two men got out of the hansom and Grieve settled with the cabman. Grieve might like to pose as the generous man of means at his party; but in the case of a robbery he was not likely to see again, his old instinct of thrift came into play.

He gave the man his exact legal fare.

"Here, what's this?" demanded the cabman indignantly. "I want another half, or else—"

"That's your legal fare; if you aren't satisfied here's a patrolman to appeal to," said Grieve, who did not like the look of the cabman's slimbite eye, but had the assurance of safety in the presence of a policeman close at hand. He walked away like a victor.

"Are you sure you can spare it?" cried the cabman after him, in bitter sarcasm. "I only hope you won't have ter beat yer way back to your country."

The flow of satire lipped into violent invective until Grieve was beyond hearing. Grieve led the companion up a street leading off Broadway, and stopped in front of a large, dingy block that had a neglected, uninhabited look.

"Here we are, old boy. Now you're going to see some fun," exclaimed Grieve, facetiously.

He knocked at the door. In a second or two a slide in it was drawn back, and through the opening an unprepossessing looking face, with a dirty collar and in his shirt sleeves, scrutinized them keenly. For the password to admittance, for which only the initiated were allowed admittance.

CHAPTER LXXVIII.

On the Tape

THE business of the day was a little betting on the ponies, and everything pointed to a lively afternoon in the poolroom.

It was nearing 2 o'clock. Most of those present had gravitated toward the railed inclosure where Mr Mountjohn, the bookmaker, and in his armchair playing carelessly with the massive gold seals on his watch chain; an air of expectancy pervaded the room. Sporting papers were being eagerly scanned; animated discussion ran upon "form" and weights.

Grieve joined the crowd of expectant backers round the enclosure. There was a click-click from the invisible telegraph instrument.

From behind the partition a voice announced that there were six starters for the first event; then read out the names of the horses and the jockeys.

Through a window in the partition the bettors passed their money, the odds being marked on a blackboard.

"I've got a fine tip for the second race," said Grieve to his companion, with a lightful in his hand. "But I can't make up my mind about this race. I must have a bet on something, you know," he added queerly. "Which horse shall it be?"

"You may have no particular fancy," said Blackmailer, "but I've a fancy, and I will bet on Grieve's eyes."

"No, I'm bound to have a chance on something," he cried.

Haggard's eyes searched the blackboard. One name he read there suddenly struck him with cynical significance. A horse was running called Blackmailer.

"I would suggest the appropriateness of backing Blackmailer," he said, with a queer smile flickering about his mouth, as he eyes met Grieve's.

Grieve laughed a little defiantly.

"All right," he said, loudly. "I'll take your advice—and make what I can on Blackmailer. He won a race yesterday."

As he spoke, the telegraph operator cried out:

"They're off! Any more bets?"

Grieve drank off his schnapps at a gulp, and thrust his way to the wicket, and said, a little unsteadily, in a loud voice:

Comes to Grief

"Twenty-five dollars Blackmailer to win."

And there was a sudden defiant look in his face as he glanced back at Haggard, as though in the thoughts of these two men the matter had become something more than a mere race, as though on the victory or defeat of the horse hung something of per sonal significance between them.

Bets were then until the clicking recommenced, and the operator began to call off the race.

It was only the name of a horse, and win or lose it could mean nothing to him, really; yet, as the message arrived, Haggard felt a personal interest to know whether Blackmailer had won.

It was not Blackmailer.

The interrupted buhef of voices filled the room again, and jubilant many more disappointed, all excited, and continued until the full result came over the wire, followed by the declaring bets, by which Mr. Mountjohn's bets were regulated.

Hopkins, Hat; Candlewax, second; Pimms, third," bawled the clerk.

Grieve's countenance had not seen run into a "place."

Judging from Haggard's face, he might have been pulling his tongue round a sweet morsel as he looked Grieve with a delighted expression of triumph and. The hatred that smouldered in his deep-set eyes, and the blackmailer doesn't intend to win! He won yesterday, but he comes to grief sooner or later! He invariably comes to grief!" he said—but so low that Grieve did not hear the mocking words.

CHAPTER LXXIX.

The "Flycatcher"

THERE had another whiskey to console him for his disappointment.

"You seem pleased that my horse didn't win," he said acidly to Haggard. "Hanged if I don't wish I hadn't asked you to come out with me. You're a lively companion, I must say!"

Haggard dredged on; three more races were run. Grieve was in the seventh heaven, and had forgotten his resentment against Haggard, for the goddess of chance had smiled steadily to him since Blackmailer's defeat; he had backed three winners, and was in any judgment of his own as to the respective merits of the runners. Novices and fools are proverbially lucky.

He had won over a hundred dollars, and he was jubilant. In the flush of his success he was more insufferable than ever. They walked, hanged of his winnings, of his racing judgment, spoke to anyone who cared to listen of the trick he meant to cut on the turf; the man was three-parts drunk with excitement and the pernicious stuff called whiskey at the bar. Haggard shrank not leave him. He kept close at Grieve's elbow, watchful as a cat. More than once he was barely able to check reckless recklessness, that would have been doubly dangerous if uttered in a place like this where every third man was an unscrupulous adventurer, a possible blackmailer.

Grieve was standing drinks to half a dozen strangers, talking boastfully of his partnership in a wealthy firm, of his intention of running over to Monte Carlo to try a system at the tables; he lied with amazing fluency about friends of his who pulled the strings of big racing affairs. Who put him on to "dead sure things?" If any gentleman present doubted his word, he had backed the last three winners! Didn't this and Grieve pulled out a handful of gold and silver—look as though he was in the know?

Haggard listened, making no attempt to show the slow so long as it did not run into dangerous channels.

He tried to recall in his mind the meek, servile Grieve who as clerk had set an example to the office in the way of industry; the average man would have laughed his assertion to scorn if he had described as he had known him only a short time ago, this babbling fool, lying

CHAPTER LXXIX.

The "Flycatcher"

THERE had another whiskey to console him for his disappointment.

"You seem pleased that my horse didn't win," he said acidly to Haggard. "Hanged if I don't wish I hadn't asked you to come out with me. You're a lively companion, I must say!"

Haggard dredged on; three more races were run. Grieve was in the seventh heaven, and had forgotten his resentment against Haggard, for the goddess of chance had smiled steadily to him since Blackmailer's defeat; he had backed three winners, and was in any judgment of his own as to the respective merits of the runners. Novices and fools are proverbially lucky.

He had won over a hundred dollars, and he was jubilant. In the flush of his success he was more insufferable than ever. They walked, hanged of his winnings, of his racing judgment, spoke to anyone who cared to listen of the trick he meant to cut on the turf; the man was three-parts drunk with excitement and the pernicious stuff called whiskey at the bar. Haggard shrank not leave him. He kept close at Grieve's elbow, watchful as a cat. More than once he was barely able to check reckless recklessness, that would have been doubly dangerous if uttered in a place like this where every third man was an unscrupulous adventurer, a possible blackmailer.

Grieve was standing drinks to half a dozen strangers, talking boastfully of his partnership in a wealthy firm, of his intention of running over to Monte Carlo to try a system at the tables; he lied with amazing fluency about friends of his who pulled the strings of big racing affairs. Who put him on to "dead sure things?" If any gentleman present doubted his word, he had backed the last three winners! Didn't this and Grieve pulled out a handful of gold and silver—look as though he was in the know?

Haggard listened, making no attempt to show the slow so long as it did not run into dangerous channels.

He tried to recall in his mind the meek, servile Grieve who as clerk had set an example to the office in the way of industry; the average man would have laughed his assertion to scorn if he had described as he had known him only a short time ago, this babbling fool, lying

The Original of This Picture Wins a Prize

$2 TO THE WOMAN WHO IDENTIFIES THIS SNAPSHOT

THE picture of a woman shopper in a Monday BOSTON AMERICAN aroused unusual interest. No less than three women thought it was their picture. Incidentally, they had a lot of fun over it.

The picture as published showed little more than the face, and it surely did look a lot like each of the three aspirants for the prize. But when the original snapshot in its entirety was shown to the applicants, two gracefully withdrew. All doubt as to the original was dispelled and the prize was speedily disposed of.

This is only an index of the tremendous interest women shoppers of Boston are taking in this feature of this page.

The uncertainty of it, perhaps, is its charm. You can't tell what day YOUR picture will appear.

When it does appear, all you have to do is to call at the BOSTON AMERICAN office and identify it and receive the prize of $2. If you call or if you don't care to call, send along a photo of yourself, and the prize will be mailed you promptly.

ADVICE TO THE LOVELORN

By Beatrice Fairfax

A COWARDLY THREAT

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX:

Several years ago I kept company with a young man. He displeased me so I dropped him and had forgotten him entirely until recently I received several letters from him. The first one he implored me to come back. I positively refused, as I disliked the very match, and moreover I am now going with one else. I am very much attached to He, seeing I will not return, has threatened my life. Must I appeal to the law?

DOT.

IF he annoys you by repeated threats, appeal to the law. Do not answer his letters, but show them to your father or brother or some one who can order him to stop writing. He is a coward or he would not threaten a girl.

A VERY DESIRABLE AGE

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX:

I have met a young man whom I admire greatly. I am eighteen years of age, while he is twenty-three. This young man seems to care for me, as he has told me, and I have never shown any signs of liking toward him. Some times I think I am five years older than a girl tries to tell her nice things in order to have her mind set on him. Before I should do this I would like to know if you think one so much older is suitable for a young girl, and if it is proper for me to go out with him.

ANXIOUS.

FIVE years is a very suitable difference in your ages. If you care for him do not discourage him all the time or he will soon grow tired of such a one-sided game. Do not run after him, but let him see that you like him and are glad to see him when he calls.

Hearst's Boston American Pattern

A Practical Apron

No. 5,665. A useful apron of generous, household size, designed to protect the entire dress, is here presented in a development of lawn and white figured percale. The back is held in position by a strap of the material that is buttoned to the front at the waist line, under a useful addition that will be appreciated in the future, although it may be omitted if desired. Gingham, denim, flannel and many other materials are suitable for making, and flouncing, braid or narrow edging may be used for trimming. The medium size will require 3¾ yards of material 36 inches wide.

5,665—Sizes for small, medium and large.

To obtain this pattern, postpaid, send 10 cents and the No. name and address to HEARST'S BOSTON AMERICAN PATTERN DEPT. P. O. Box 239, Boston, Mass.

No. 5,665.

SIZE.....

NAME.....

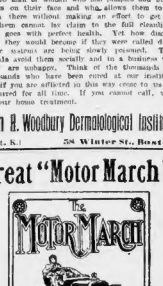
ADDRESS.....

PIMPLY FACES

The man or woman who has pimples and blackheads on their face and who allows them to remain there without making an effort to get rid of them cannot be claim to the full cleanliness that goes with good health. They are mistaken if they would become if they were called dirty. They are not dirty, but they are careless. Their friends avoid them socially and in a business way. They are unhappy. Think of the thousands and thousands who have been cured in our institute, and if you are afflicted in this way come to us and be cured for all time. If you cannot call, write for our home treatment.

John H. Woodbury Dermatological Institute,
(Dept. K.) 58 Winter St., Boston.

Great "Motor March"



This is the great $10,000 march by the composer of the famous "Mississippi March." George Hosey, known in every nook and corner of the land as America's greatest March King. Mr. Hosey's "Motor March" has outdone all his past efforts in the line of beautiful march writing. Its perfect harmony and its soul-stirring rhythm are not excepted. "Motor March" (for piano) embodies a combination of an exceptionally beautiful melody blended with a sweeping rhythm that makes standing still almost impossible. Get a copy of this beautiful musical treasure for only 15 cents. Order to-day.

Music Dep., New York Journal, 1789 Broadway, New York City. COUPON

Please send me one copy (lately listed 50c. copy of the "Motor March," for which I am enclosing 15c. (Wrap coins securely.)

Name.....

Street.....

City.....

State.....

WONDERLAND'S BIG PARADE IS A MILE LONG

Twice a Day All the Attractions of the Magic City by the Sea Join in Big Event.

CROWDS LINE LONG ROUTE

Easily is the great mile-long parade of the different attractions the feature in Wonderland-by-the-Sea at Revere. It is the ensemble of the great pleasure resort. Everything goes in the parade that can go. Everything that is of particular interest which can walk, crawl, tumble or run.

Though but a week old the parade for there is now the one exception of Labor Day for the thousands who throng the board walk by the lagoon. A rule—a novel and fast projection of Wonderland's crew state in the parade. New things, new stunts, new costumes, new groupings, new ideas put in practice every day, are demanded, so, commanded by the Wonderland management of the concessionaires.

Every attraction that can put anything in the parade has to do so. Also the attractions must change the form of their exhibition in the big public demonstration, too. Nothing goes stale.

The overwhelming popularity of this greatest of free open-air shows is due to several princes the wisdom of this order. Wonderland visitors know to a minute just the next time they see the big parade they will see this or that feature. Hence the hour which they have not tired of seeing before.

For instance, everybody knows to look to follow the band around the board walk—its first long stop is at the Dreamland Rink in the mile long show. At a signal the men bring about a deafening and harmonious roll of blank cartridges from their accessories. At about the same time the band is visible to go on the warpath, but this path never leads among the attractions, so it is interesting but not terrifying.

The Lure of the Orient.

The great fire brigade of Fire and Flames makes a prominent feature in the demonstration, and the weird and fascinating Orient is always watched from the time it appears until it is lost to view in distant crowds which flock around it. The Orient is becoming more and more popular, for better performances are aimed at and are reached constantly. The new dancing girls have added several new and bewitching reels and poses, and the contortions are putting up forces and better contests as they are getting more difficult form.

The big parade is seen twice a day at Wonderland at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and at 7 in the evening. When the first trumpet blares the signal there is a rush from all parts of the amusement park to the board walk, and the crowd, twenty deep, lines both the route and the walk. Then the excitement and expectant humanity. Every change in programme or appearance of men in the spectacle is noted now, for the parade has gained the public eye and ear. Overland and the other attractions set by the visitors who expect as much are being constantly built with the idea of becoming of such demonstration.

Popular prices and good shows make Wonderland the people's pleasure ground. Vaudeville can be seen for 10 cents, and for so small an outlay Wonderland, covering as it does 30 acres, is within the easy reach of the most flattened out pocket book. The most absolute safety in the recess and at a railroad fare of but 10 cents for the round trip from Boston. Lots of sources of splendid shows and it query of electric display at night. Last but not least it that here the people of Greater Boston go for amusement.

But One Fee in Orient.

Wonderland visitors are delighted to know that prices have been cut in half at the Orient. Formerly there was a general admission price of ten cents, and extra prices were collected when the theatre was visited. Hereafter the admission fee of 10 cents will admit one to the entire interest ing and remarkable exhibition, theatre and all. This popularizing of prices increases the audiences at the Orient. The attraction is one of the best Wonderland offers. It is unique.

The Siylan twins in the infant feat, after arriving quite a reputation for cuteness in weight. They are not large enough not quite enough to do a turn as the rule is, but that they will grow up to be a healthy, good looking pair of Syrian maidens, there is little doubt. They are the first passing through the dangerous stage of their infancy—experience and from now on are expected to develop rapidly and normally.

"Midget" Taylor, the 21-inch man, who at one time could sit in a pint pitcher, is now in the stage now. He would be in the pint measure to hold her now and then there would be room for two more such as she the young person. It will not be many weeks until the midget baby will be able to be taken from her incubator and seat home to her happy parents. The infant incubators are teaching visitors to Wonderland experience and from now on are expected to develop rapidly and normally.

"Midget" Taylor, the 21-inch man, who at one time could sit in a pint pitcher, is now in the stage now. He would be in the pint measure to hold her now and then there would be room for two more such as she the young person. It will not be many weeks until the midget baby will be able to be taken from her incubator and seat home to her happy parents. The infant incubators are teaching visitors to Wonderland experience and from now on are expected to develop rapidly and normally.

BIG PARADE CROSS WORK IN SAN FRANCISCO

J. B. Moors, of National Society, Says Dr. Hall-Brown's Criticism Is Undeserved.

BEST POSSIBLE WORK DONE

J. B. Moors, member of the brokerage firm of Moors & Cabot of this city, who was in San Francisco for the Red Cross at the time of the earthquake in an interview with a BOSTON AMERICAN reporter, declares that the letter received in Boston from Dr. Lucy Hall-Brown from San Francisco in which she severely criticises the relief work of the Red Cross after the earthquake, is untrue as far as the National Red Cross is concerned.

"It is true that scandalous conditions obtained in the hospital at the Lobican Church, San Francisco, and that the sole Hall Red Cross is to blame, as Dr. Lucy Hall-Brown writes?" asked the reporter.

Only Closed Hospital.

"The National Red Cross had nothing to do with that hospital but to close it, and it did so only two months ago. No word was received of trouble between the doctor in charge and the matron, who sent to investigate. I found that the doctor and the matron had been appointed by different societies. Trouble had arisen, and the hospital itself was a wretched makeshift. I therefore recommended that it be closed and it was closed, except, I believe, for a small emergency ward. The Red Cross should have the credit for closing the hospital and not the blame for its conditions.

"It is true that some of the officials actually stole and sold that which they had gathered by theft?"

Conditions Much Better.

"I have seen in the newspapers, since I left San Francisco, that the Grand Jury thinks it caught a couple of rascals."

"What is the assurance that the conditions are bettered?"

"The facts that no one is reported hungry, that the health of the city was never so good before, that so many thousands have been given an opportunity to resume their normal occupations, that the broad lines are now so much refined. These improved conditions seem to me elements of the enlightened and devoted work done."

"Is the California Red Cross a branch of the national body or quite by the authority?"

"The National Red Cross in the San Francisco emergency was managed by Dr. Ed ward T. Devine of New York, especially representative. It was quite distinct from the California branch, with the latter's business while I was in San Francisco."

"From your observations can you point out there could you say that the specific difficulties against which Dr. Brown were probable?"

Officials Libelled.

"With a minimum of over three hundred thousand persons getting relief and several hundred relief givers, most of them brought in from the front by the emergency, it was hardly impossible to have all go as smooth from the start. But having been the official representative at relief stations in all quarters, I know what uniform efforts were made to insure courtesy and kindness.

"Is it true that many of the Red Cross officials chose the best things for themselves and their friends?"

"I am very sure that this was never true. Always the grain and the National supplies were at work to distribute to relief stations, weeding out the loss desirable, which they found in many cases, sold, and strengthening the better."

Dr. Hall-Brown, who formerly resided in Boston, declares in her letter that the methods of the Red Cross officials were such, that they were indifferent to suffering, and that starvation and dishonesty caused the distribution of supplies prohibited for sufferers.

HUSTING MAY LOSE SIGHT

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 27.—Pete Husting, the well known baseball player and member of the firm of Husting & Husting, attorneys at law, Pond du Lac, one of the best known baseball pitchers in America, is at St. Mary's Hospital undergoing treatment for his eyes.

He has lost one eye because of a boil which necessitated its removal, and there is danger that he may lose the sight of the other eye as well.

Husting, with Waddell, was a big factor in the pennant race for the Athletics of Philadelphia in 1902.

NEWS OF LABOR.

At the organization of the executive board of Electrical Workers' Union No. 103, last night, John J. McLaughlin was chosen chairman; S. J. Murphy, secretary, and Martin T. Joyce, sergeant-at-arms. At the meeting the financial secretary of the building trades section of the Central Labor Union, Carl O. Olin and John J. McLaughlin will represent the local child at that meeting and John J. McLaughlin are the delegates to the State Branch of the American Federation of Labor.

MARBLE WORKERS ELECT.

Officers of Marble Workers' Union have been elected as follows: President, Daniel McCarthy; vice-president, Wilford H. Cushing; recording secretary, Daniel G. Cunningham; financial secretary, William Young; treasurer, John Healy; trustees, Michael Welby, William Hamilton, William Vaughan; sergeant-at-arms, John Uhlig; delegates to Building Trades Council, Bernard Cassidy, Wilford H. Cushing, Michael McCarthy, John Healy, William Hamilton, Michael Welby and Thomas Vaughan; delegates to Central Labor Union, Wilford H. Cushing and Michael McCarthy.

LABOR NOTES.

The executive board of Carpenters' Union No. 87 has refused the application of Local Union No. 184, and of the Waterbury, Ct., union, each seeking an increase of per capita.

Boston Paperstainers' Union has increased its weekly scale of wages from $18 to $21.

Plasterers' Union No. 19 will nominate candidates for delegates to the convention at Toronto, Wednesday night, and the election will take place the Wednesday night following.

HAD BRONZE URN MADE FOR ASHES

PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 27.—Mrs. Charles Webster, Chichester, formerly of this city, who died at Middletown, N. Y., yesterday, aged seventy, prepared for death a year ago by having a bronze urn made here to hold his ashes after cremation.

STARVES TO DEATH AT AGE OF 70

MILTON, Vt., July 27.—John Weeks, eighty years old and a cripple, was found dead at his lonely home yesterday, having perished, it is thought, of starvation.

PIANOS AND ORGANS.

ROXBURY STORAGE SALESROOMS

SACRIFICE PIANO SALE

Krauch & Bach..... $95.00
Briggs Upright..... 57.50
Chickering Upright..... 41.00
Ivers & Pond..... 108.00
Merrill Upright..... 67.50
Ivers & Pond Upright..... 105.00
Chickering Uprights..... 85.75
Rogers Upright..... 45.00
Steinway Piano..... 42.50
Vose Upright..... 55.75
Gilbert Upright..... 57.00
Chickering Upright..... 65.00
Vose Upright..... 62.75
Hallet & Davis..... 78.00

$5 DOWN, $1 PER WEEK

WANT A PIANO?

We will deliver at your expense on approval and pay freight both ways, a high grade piano, and will allow you a liberal price for your old piano in exchange for the new one, and will allow you full price paid toward purchase of new piano if you decide to buy within 2 years. FEW PENNIES DAILY. Send coupon for the list.

Mail Us This $ Coupon Today

WOOD PIANO CO.
180 Tremont St.,
Boston, Mass.

Please send description of piano, marked X in above advertisement.

NAME .....

ADDRESS .....

City ..... State .....

Mark with a cross X the piano you wish to know about.

WOOD PIANO CO.,
180 TREMONT ST., BOSTON

HORSES AND CARRIAGES.

HORSES FOR SALE

32 Cambridge St., Charlestown.

$85 BUYS LADY BESS—$85

Only 6 years old; handsome black mares in Mass. for sale; safe to ride or drive; weighs 1075 lbs.; 7 years old; she is round turned and sound as a dollar; can be seen at any time; she is a real lady's horse; she is not afraid of any horse; she is free from horseshoe and is sure footed; she is not afraid of cars or autos; she is not afraid of any place without blinking; must be seen to be appreciated; she is a great traveler; she is not afraid of standing; no shoeing; can be driven single or double; there is no better lady's horse in Mass.; she is perfectly safe; must be sold to settle estate. 32 Cambridge st., Charlestown, Mass.

$125—ADDLE COB—$125.

$100 BUYS BAY HORSE, 1100 lbs., 8 years old; sound; kind; safe; weighs 1100 lbs.; stands 15.2; handles itself and will stand; perfectly kind; will work single or double; is not afraid of cars or autos; is not afraid of any horse; she is perfectly safe; must be sold to settle estate; can be seen at any time; trial given. 32 Cambridge st., Charlestown, Mass.

$125—PAIR BAYS.

WEIGHT 2,300; age 7 and 8, sound, true pair; good style and action; will suit any person. 32 Cambridge st., Charlestown, Mass.

$125—PAIR BAYS.

WEIGHT 2,300; age 7 and 8; good workers and will work 2 miles an hour together, single, trim, right out of hand work. 32 Cambridge st., Charlestown, Mass.

$65—BROWN MARE.

WEIGHT 1,150; age 7; sound; good down the pole; single or double; clever and all right. 32 Cambridge st., Charlestown, Mass.

$30 BUYS SPEEDY $-144.

Age 6 years; weight 1,000; sound; 2 gait and under and clever and can speed a 2.10 and most any kind of work. 32 Cambridge st., Charlestown, Mass.

$30 BUYS MARE.

BROWN MARE, weight 1,150; age 7; in good shape; sound; true to pull single or double; a good driver. 32 Cambridge st., Charlestown, Mass.

Where to Dine

HOTEL HIGHLAND, 2164-66 Washington st. Table d'hote dinner, 12 to 2.30 p. m., 50c. Excelling glass of beer. Private dining rooms a la carte.

CROSBY'S RESTAURANT—19 School st., cor. City Hall. A la carte, 11:30 to 2:30 p. m.

TOMPORDER'S ladies' and gents' restaurant, 49 to 51 Court st., Boston, opp. Old Court House.

INFORMATION WANTED.

DIVORCES without everybody knowing, quickly, strictly private, advice free, $2, agreement, law terms. LAWYER C. C. ALLEN, 87 Court st., Boston.

TYPEWRITERS.

TEE TYPEWRITER EXCHANGE has the largest and best stock of machines at the lowest prices. 334 Broadway.

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on furniture and pianos at low rates. HARTIN, 331 Tremont st.

REAL ESTATE

CAMP LOTS and ONE-ACRE FARMS $100 $2 DOWN, $1 A WEEK

At GLEN ECHO LAKE, most picturesque Summer resort in the State; 2 weeks' free boat service for campers; 1 hour from Boston; beautiful shade trees, pure water, fine bathing beach; lots 50x100 feet; all the lots will be sold at present prices; no increase in price; call or write for free booklet and $1 per week. Also 1 and 2 acre family lots at $100 and $200; many can make a living from these lots; 2 trains and electric cars run Sundays at Glen Echo.

SOMERVILLE & C

CODY Room house at Somerville; rent reasonable; 10 choice elections. BLANCHARD & BLANCHARD, 24 Sanborn st., Somerville.

GOOD 2-family house, 10 rms.; fine condition; $2,000. BLANCHARD & BLANCHARD, 24 Sanborn st., Somerville.

TWO FAMILY cups; house; rent $17; $1,600. BLANCHARD & BLANCHARD, 24 Sanborn st., Somerville.

SINGLE 6-room house, all modern conveniences; $2,100. BLANCHARD & BLANCHARD, 24 Sanborn st., Somerville.

FIRST-CLASS PROPOSITION; new 2-family house; 6 and 7 rms.; also 10 rm. house; all modern conveniences; fine location; $3,500. BLANCHARD & BLANCHARD, 24 Sanborn st., Somerville.

SOMERVILLE—Must be sacrificed; owner going away; 2-family house; 6 and 7 rms.; all modern conveniences; fine location; $3,500. BLANCHARD & BLANCHARD, 24 Sanborn st., Somerville.

TWO-FAMILY house; 6 and 7 rms.; all modern conveniences; fine location; $3,500. BLANCHARD & BLANCHARD, 24 Sanborn st., Somerville.

$1,000 LESS THAN

THE MARKET OPEN OUR building, faces south, has sun all day; 6 rms., bath, set tubs, hot water heat, gas, open plumbing, cemented cellar, set tubs, hot water heat, gas, open plumbing, cemented cellar, set tubs, hot water heat, gas, open plumbing, cemented cellar

HEARST'S BOSTON AMERICAN

WILLIAM RANDOLPH HEARST

80 AND 82 SUMMER ST., BOSTON, JULY 27, 1906

Class Distinction in Our Prisons

They Are Closed on Sunday "to Keep Out the Riffraff"

One of our great prisons is visited often by a new class of interested sightseers.

Almost every day big automobiles stop at the prison door and the owners ask for permission to go through and "look at the prisoners."

A bird in a cage is always a object of strange interest to the birds outside.

Unhappy human beings locked upin prisons or in insane asylums seem to fascinate many of their fellow cratures, free outside.

Poor creatures working with downcast eyes at enforced labor see daily long lines of the curious eager "s imagine how it feels to be locked up."

Those that come in automobiles, the newest class of prison visitors, are usually admitted with bows and smiles and much honor.

But if they come on Sunday THEY CANNOT GT IN.

Nobody is allowed to visit the prison on Sunday. Do you know why? It is, as they say, to keep out the crowd, "the riffraff."

A majority of those in our prisons belong to very po families, which means that they have not had much of a chance.

POVERTY IS THE WORST CURSE IN THE WORLD. T IS A BREEDER OF CRIME: IT FILLS OUR PRISONS.

Those that talk to the contrary are hypocrites seeking to makthe poor contented and dull for their own selfish ends.

Poverty fills the prisons, and the relatives of those in the dark stone cells are too often very poor people.

Therefore, to avoid the crowd, THE PRISON IS KEPT CLOSED ON SUNDAY.

Many a poor woman works all through the week, painfully, to take care of her children, to send tobacco and other pitiful gifts to some man in the jail. She is living for the day when he shall come out and when she will try to reform him.

Her only chance of seeing him is on Sunday—FOR SHE MUST WORK EVERY OTHER DAY.

But the administration of a republic's prisons shuts the doors in her face on Sunday. She cannot come in.

Let some prosperous individual, adding to his prosperity by stealing, get caught. He is not deprived of the visits of his relatives. They can get away on week days.

Contrast the scene when a poor woman applies to see her husband or son at the prison door on Sunday with a recent scene when a Mrs. Thaw, owner of forty millions, went to a New York City prison on Sunday to see HER son. SHE was admitted instantly.

IT WAS RIGHT THAT SHE SHOULD SEE HIM. IT WAS ONLY DECENT TO LET THAT TORTURED MOTHER GO TO HER SON AT THE EARLIEST POSSIBLE MOMENT.

Suppose that some poor woman with a shawl over her head had walked up to that prison door on the same day, saying, "I have come from far off to see my boy in jail." Do you suppose she would have get in?

She would NOT have got in.

If there is anything that would help to reform a criminal, anything that would hold him back from a permanent career of crime, anything that would check the influence of the vicious surroundings in which our government puts the young criminal, IT WOULD BE THE VISIT FROM HIS MOTHER, HIS SISTERS, HIS BROTHERS, HIS HONEST FRIENDS.

Certainly a country like this wants to CURE the criminal—not make him hopeless in his path of life.

Then why not try to show him all consideration possible? And why not treat with kindness those that are innocent, yet made to suffer more than the convicted criminal?

Is it not a strange comment on our so-called democracy and equality that even in the PRISONS special favors for wealth and rank crop up?

The man who has prosperous relatives able to dispose of their week days may see his friends all he chooses.

And the man very rich who finds himself in jail can see his relatives EVEN ON SUNDAY. THANKS TO A SPECIAL EXCEPTION.

But the poor criminal, with the poor wife, or mother, or sister at work at the washtub, in the sweatshop or at the store, cannot see at all the one who so sadly needs to see him. She must work on week days and on Sundays "THE RIFFRAFF IS KEPT OUT."

It is just so all through our beautiful "civilization," which we imagine to be so perfect and democratic.

Those that are prosperous can amuse themselves in games and sports all through the week. AND ON SUNDAYS THEY SAY TO THE OTHERS, "IT IS TRUE THAT YOU HAVE ONLY THIS DAY OF THE WEEK TO AMUSE YOURSELVES. BUT YOU MUST BE IDLE AND DULL THIS DAY OUT OF RESPECT TO US."

And while the boy in the street who wants to play ball, or the man or woman who wants some innocent form of amusement on Sunday, is forbidden to make the day a day "FOR MAN" in accordance with the Bible's teachings, the more prosperous person goes out into the fields to play golf or tennis, run an automobile or otherwise pass the Sunday cheerfully.

We TALK a good deal about our democratic government by the people, but there are a good many holes in it; many things that need changing.

The question brought up to-day of the prison doors closed on Sunday against the poor criminal's friends may seem a small matter. Would it not be the merest display of justice and decency to arrange for an unhappy mother to see her son in jail on the only day which she has at her disposal?

Little Editorials from the People

HONOR WHERE HONOR IS DUE.

Editor BOSTON AMERICAN:

In the reports of the recent disaster at South Framingham, such a great amount of credit has been given to the action of the State militia in caring for the sufferers that I feel that injustice has been done to the local physicians, the Framingham Hospital and the drivers and the unknown, but brave, volunteer assistants.

I chanced to arrive in South Framingham about half an hour after the fall of the building, and very soon afterward went to the Framingham Hospital to see if I could be of any assistance in caring for the injured. On my way to the hospital the company of the Ninth Regiment was passed just arriving on the scene of the accident. As I turned into the street on which the hospital is located the last person who had been taken alive from the ruins was being carried into the building. Within the hospital I found practically all the physicians of the town assembled. Some of the patients had already been bathed, their wounds and bruises disinfected and some of the fractures were even then done up in temporary dressings. And the work of the nurses and doctors for the care of the others was progressing rapidly.

Immediately after the fall of the building Dr. O. W. Collins, whose term of service it is at the hospital, was notified and he assumed general charge of the relief work. All the physicians of the town responded at once. Some were sent to the hospital to receive the wounded, and some stayed at the scene of the disaster to help care for those that were under the wreck. These physicians and the firemen of the town and many brave volunteers went directly into the tottering ruins and brought out all of those who were alive. The two local ambulances were on hand and conveyed the injured at once to the hospital, and so quickly and systematically was the work done that within three-quarters of an hour from the time of the disaster the last patient was in the hospital, as has been said above. All this took place before the arrival of the militia upon the scene. Afterward the militia did good work, as has been so well described, but the immediate work of rescue and all the care of the injured was done by the people of South Framingham themselves."

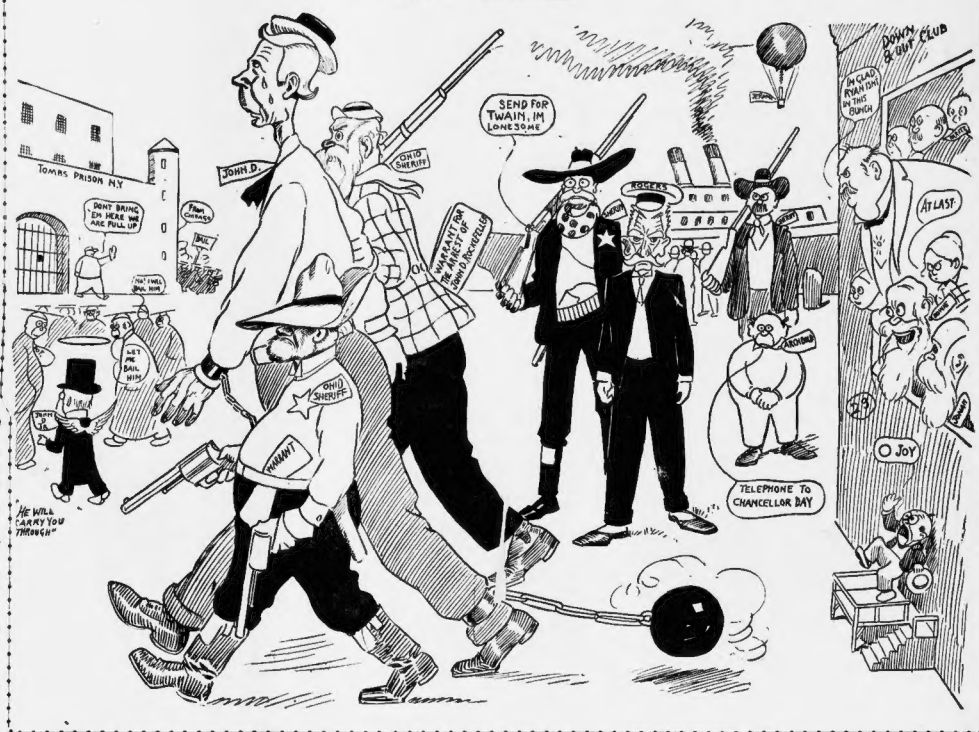
ARTHUR K. STONE, M. D.

Boston, July 25, 1906.

PINCHED? NOT YET---BUT SOON!

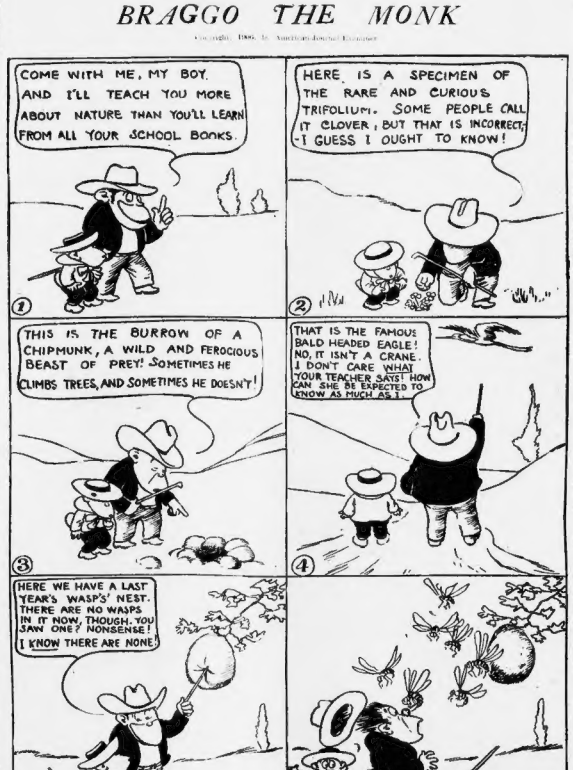
BY T. E. POWERS

Copyright, 1906, by American-Journal-Examiner



BRAGGO THE MONK

Copyright, 1906, by American-Journal-Examiner



HE DIDN'T THINK THE WASPS WERE AT HOME, BUT THEY WERE

A Hot Weather Ballad

By William F. Kirk

Words by the Author — Music by the Weather Man

I.

WITHIN a humid four-room flat a loving couple strolled,
At times descending to their knees and praying for the cold.
The husband was a heavy cuss who never had been slim—
Four pounds of talcum powder was a stingy dose for him.
He wore some thin pajamas, fastened with the thinnest hooks,
Because they kept no boarders and they didn't care for looks.
The wife was in a wrapper more or less decollete,
And while they marched around the flat these words she heard him say:

CHORUS:

"This prickly heat is killing me, my precious angel-face!
It seems so hard that I should die—the last of all my race.
Take all my life insurance when my form is 'neath the ground
And build yourself a Summer home 'way up at Puget Sound."

II.

HIS breath grew faint and fainter; he wabbled 'round the place;
He drank a "cooling highball," then he fell upon his face.
The coroner blew in next day, according to the law,
And said: "This is the warmest flat which I have ever saw,
Excepting one apartment—for the truth I'm bound to tell—
The dainty little dwelling out in Brighton, where I dwell.
Now in the wilds of Puget Sound the wife's growing gray
And thinking of the sentence which her husband once did say:

CHORUS:

"This prickly heat is killing me, my precious angel-face!
It seems so hard that I should die—the last of all my race.
Take all my life insurance when my form is 'neath the ground
And build yourself a Summer home 'way up at Puget Sound."

SPARKS

By Rev. Charles A. Crane

JOHN BURNS recently said in London concerning the awful mortality among children: "In the days when canned meats were unknown, the children were fed naturally, and there was no such sacrifice of child life."

* * *

Crime among children has so greatly increased in Germany of late that a decree has been issued forbidding the sale of the American dime novel.

* * *

There are six industrial schools for negroes in Virginia, but not one for the whites. The most neglected people in America are the "poor whites" of the South.

* * *

"Thou shalt not steal" is a plank of a platform which will be voted on in the coming election.

* * *

"Laughin' tones the system up,
Nourishes the wit;
Gives the heart new purposes
So laugh a little bit."

* * *

Who but the persons represented in a corporation could set up a shop for the sale of goods on the Common?

More Little Editorials from the People

WHAT DO YOU THINK OF THIS WAY OF RAISING CHILDREN?

Editor BOSTON AMERICAN:

As you have very frequently of late stated, in an especially framed paragraph, that you would like to hear from your readers, even if they do not agree with you, I herewith want to confer with you on the subject of child labor, considered in its general aspects.

I say that labor is the natural occupation of the child, and that study is unnatural to it, and should be reserved for later years. In fact, our entire social system has the cart before the horse.

We have a lot of boys and girls, and I have tried the experiment of letting them grow up as they please, safeguarding them at times, of course, and also impressing them not to infringe on others. None of them has ever seen the inside of a school or any kind.

Although naturally delicate, not one of these children has ever had any of the contagious or infectious diseases which all other children have as a matter of course. I say that the public schools are the great breeders of children's diseases.

Books, papers, parental instruction and opportunity to work have been put before my children for their acceptance as they find use it, and the result has been that they are about one-third as far in books as average children, and much further in reasoning power and work.

One of my boys, not yet nine, took a notion to apprentice himself to a builder, and he works every day at house building without pay, with no intention of quitting. Thus, with plenty of work, plenty of leisure, plenty of liberty, plenty of sunshine, fresh air, food and sleep, I am solving the child problem in my own particular way.

Sykesville, Md. FRANK LIVESEY.

A WORKINGMAN'S VIEW

Editor BOSTON AMERICAN:

Your editorial "A Pathetic Whine from a Scab," was the best and most truthful article on trade unionism I have ever seen. It is a good thing that Boston's greatest newspaper presents the truth as it does, for in the labor union is the only hope that working people have in the fight against the trusts. The conservative workingman who thinks labor unions are too radical better join one at once and by voice and vote make labor unions better. They can do more good inside than out.

PATRICK DIGNAN.

No. 6 Lansdowne street, Roxbury.